To End All War:

To End All Wars Ernest Gordon, 2013-11-25 Now a major motion picture starring Robert Carlyle and Kiefer Sutherland Waking from a dream I suddenly realized where I was in the Death House in a prison camp by the River Kwai I was a prisoner of war lying among the dead waiting for the bodies to be carried away so that I might have more room When Ernest Gordon was twenty four he was captured by the Japanese and forced with other British prisoners to build the notorious Railroad of Death where nearly 16 000 prisoners of war gave their life Faced with the appalling conditions of the prisoners camp and the brutality of the captors he survived to become an inspiring example of the triumph of the human spirit against all odds To End All Wars is Ernest Gordon s gripping true story behind both the Academy Award winning film The Bridge on the River Kwai starring Alec Guinness and the new film To End All Wars directed by David Cunningham The War to End

All Wars: A Comprehensive History of World War I Kevin Hunt, 2024-02-26 Echoes of Valor The Great War A Comprehensive History of World War I transports you to a tumultuous era when the world stood on the precipice of cataclysm From the trenches of the Western Front to the desolate expanses of the Eastern Front witness the clash of empires the resilience of soldiers and the indomitable human spirit The War To End All Wars delves beyond battles and treaties It reveals the resilience of the human spirit the bonds forged in adversity and the seeds of a changed world As the guns fell silent in 1918 the echoes of valor reverberated through generations Immerse yourself in the crucible of history Hear the echoes that shaped our present Are you ready to take a step back in time Woodrow Wilson as Commander in Chief

Michael P. Riccards, Cheryl A. Flagg, 2019-11-19 This first study on Woodrow Wilson as the commander in chief during the Great War analyzes his management style before the war his diplomacy and his battle with the Senate It considers the war as representing the collapse of Western traditional virtues and examines Wilson s attempt to restore them Emphasizing the American war effort on the domestic front it also discusses Wilson s rise to power his education career and work as governor as necessary steps in his formation The authors deal honestly and critically with the racism that characterized this brilliant but limited career Fourteen Points for the Twenty-First Century Richard H. Immerman, Jeffrey A. Engel, 2020-06-23 When the United States entered World War I President Woodrow Wilson declared to Congress that the objective was not merely to bring a new balance of power but rather to bring a just and secure peace to the world by the end of the conflict In this famous speech known as The Fourteen Points Wilson offered the world a road map toward a more equitable international system in the midst of unprecedented global conflict including ideas on the interconnectedness of democracy trade and the concept of a forum for peaceably resolving international disputes Even decades after the end of the First World War Wilson s ideas remained important and influenced many of his successors But now in the twenty first century there are forces at work in the world that Wilson could never have imagined and those forces call for a new plan toward peace In Fourteen Points for the Twenty First Century A Renewed Appeal for Cooperative Internationalism Richard H Immerman and Jeffrey A Engel bring together a diverse group of thinkers who take up Wilson's call for a new world order by exploring fourteen new directions for the twenty first century The contributors scholars policymakers entrepreneurs poets doctors and scientists propose solutions to contemporary challenges such as migration global warming health care food security and privacy in the digital age Taken together these points challenge American leaders and policymakers to champion an international effort not to make America great again but to work cooperatively with other nations on the basis of mutual respect Two Trees David Leduc,2014-01-24 Science Philosophy Religion and even Governments have long sought The Grand Unified Theory of Everything Even if they find it I suspect they won't be able to eliminate the fundamental contradictions of our existence Every formula doctrine and policy has so far failed to unify the universe Contradiction is everywhere around and within us I do not mean the elegant complimentary opposites of the Yin Yang I speak of the irreconcilable dichotomies that simultaneously occupy our little sphere of influence The Grand Unified Theory may yet be discovered in a tome of mathematical equations or in a single unpronounceable syllable Deduction is not my discipline My business is to take the emotions created by our shared confusion and craft them into an image or narrative that might compel someone to say out loud I know exactly how you feel That's how poetry saves lives When they find it we can all relax and softly dissolve into eternal enlightenment Until that wonderful day I must continue to maintain my equilibrium in this round about by the best way I've learned how the reading practice of poetry Sincerely David Leduc Congressional Record United States. and leaders and its equally remarkable soldiers Meticulously detailed and engagingly written The Big Red One nimbly combines historical narrative with astute analysis of the unit's successes and failures so that its story reflects the larger chronicle of America's military experience over the past century The Zionist Review, 1919 The New Thought Companion, 1914 Our War Too Margaret Paton-Walsh, 2002 In the late 1930s a number of American women especially those allied with various peace and isolationist groups protested against the nation's entry into World War II While their story is fairly well known Margaret Paton Walsh reveals a far less familiar story of women who fervently felt that American intervention was absolutely necessary Paton Walsh recounts how the United States became involved in the war but does so through the eyes of American women who faced it as a necessary evil Covering the period between 1935 and 1941 she examines how these women functioned as political actors even though they were excluded from positions of power through activism in women's organizations informal women's networks and even male dominated lobbying groups In the Great Debate over whether America should enter the war some women favored aid to the Allies not because they hoped for war but because they hoped aid would forestall more direct U S involvement but also because they believed war was preferable to a Nazi victory Paton Walsh shows that this activism involved some of the most prominent women of their day Elizabeth Cutter Morrow whose son in law Charles Lindbergh was an isolationist spokesman supported the revision of the Neutrality Acts to allow the sale of arms to the Allies and expressed her support in a national radio broadcast Soon other women joined this debate Esther Brunauer of the AAUW journalist Dorothy Thompson and organizations like the League of Women Voters and National Women's Trade Union League broke from the pacifist tradition to advocate American aid for the Allied cause Focusing on the conflict in Europe Paton Walsh shows how these women grasped the implications of the Lend Lease program for America's entry into the war but supported it nevertheless By late 1941 the Women's Division of the Fight for Freedom Committee had been established no longer merely advocating aid to Britain to keep American boys out of battle this organization supported direct American involvement in the war as a means of stopping Nazi oppression While most historians have focused on women's pacifism Paton Walsh connects women more directly to world events and shows how those interventionists reformulated maternalist ideas to justify and explain their beliefs Our War Too is a story of American women trying to reconcile the irreconcilable to preserve both their principles and their peace It expands our understanding of women as political actors and thinkers about foreign policy as it sheds new light on American public opinion over the build up to the war Parliament and Revolution James Ramsay MacDonald, 1920 The Eastern Question and Its Solution Morris Jastrow (Jr.), 1920 Our Navy, 1930 Public Letters and Papers of Thomas Walter Bickett, Governor of North Carolina, 1917-1921 North Carolina.
