War In Hell:

Christianity Versus War Daniel Crouse Moomaw, 1924 Writing after War John Limon, 1994-07-07 In Writing After War John Limon develops a theory of the relationship of war in general to literature in general in order to make sense of American literary history in particular Applying the work of war theorists Carl von Clausewitz and Elaine Scarry John Limon argues that The Iliad inaugurates Western literature on the failure of war to be duel like to have a beautiful form War's failure is literature's justification American literary history is demarcated by wars as if literary epochs like the history of literature itself required bloodshed to commence But in chapters on periods of literary history from realism generally taken to be a product of the Civil War through modernism usually assumed to be a prediction or result of the Great War up to postmodernism which followed World War II and spanned Vietnam Limon argues that despite the looming presence of war in American history the techniques that define these periods are essentially ways of not writing war From James and Twain through Fitzgerald Faulkner and even Hemingway to Pynchon our national literary history is not hopelessly masculinist Limon argues Instead it arrives naturally at Bobbie Ann Mason and Maxine Hong Kingston Kingston brings the discussion full circle The Woman Warrior like The Iliad appears to condemn the fall from duel to war that is literature's endless opening

The 83rd Pennsylvania Volunteers in the Civil War Michael Schellhammer, 2009-01-28 The 83rd Pennsylvania Infantry suffered the second highest number of battle deaths of all the Union regiments in every theater throughout the course of the Civil War Nevertheless this hardy and determined unit was able to overcome loss defeat and heartache through their enduring defense and preservation of the Union line during the pivotal battle of Gettysburg This book offers the first ever comprehensive history of the 83rd Pennsylvania It combines official war records personal remembrances of veterans of the regiment information derived from opposing Confederates and secondary sources to produce a remarkable story of leadership endurance hardship and triumph Personal Reminiscences of the War of 1861-5 William Henry Morgan, 1911 The Advocate of Peace, 1905 The Great War Kellen Kurschinski, Steve Marti, Alicia Robinet, Matt Symes, Jonathan F. Vance, 2015-10-23 The Great War From Memory to History offers a new look at the multiple ways the Great War has been remembered and commemorated through the twentieth century and into the twenty first Drawing on contributions from history cultural studies film and literary studies this collection offers fresh perspectives on the Great War and its legacy at the local national and international levels More importantly it showcases exciting new research on the experiences and memories of forgotten participants who have often been ignored in dominant narratives or national histories Contributors to this international study highlight the transnational character of memory making in the Great War's aftermath No single memory of the war has prevailed but many symbols rituals and expressions of memory connect seemingly disparate communities and wartime experiences With groundbreaking new research on the role of Aboriginal peoples ethnic minorities women artists historians and writers in shaping these expressions of memory this book will be of great interest to readers from a variety of national and academic backgrounds

Docu-Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova, 2019-05-01 Historical writing and fiction are not the same thing though historians often creatively manipulate material in imposing plot structures selecting starting and ending points and fashioning compelling literary characters from historical figures In Docu Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova argues that the opposite is also true war fiction offers a kind of history that both documents its subjects and provides a snapshot of the cultural representation of the United States most recent military involvements She covers a largely neglected body of cinematic and literary texts about the First Gulf War the Balkan War the Afghanistan War and the Iraq War to open a fresh analysis of cultural texts on war Prorokova contends that these texts are not pure fiction but docu fictions works of imagination that can document their subjects while disclosing the social political and historical link between war and culture during the last three decades Docu Fictions of War analyzes how these representational narratives have highlighted a humanitarian rationale behind American involvement in each war whether the stated goals were to free the oppressed from tyranny stop genocide or rid the world of terrorism The book explores the gap between history what allegedly happened and the cultural mythology that is both true and inexact tangible and sensed recognized and undocumented
