Waste Makers:

The Waste Makers Vance Packard, 2011 A pioneering work from the 1960s about how the rapid growth of disposable consumer goods degraded the environmental financial and spiritual character of western society It exposed the increasing commercialisation of American life when people bought things they didn't need or want It also highlighted the concept of planned obsolescence the death date built into products This prescient study predicted the rise of consumer culture and features an introduction by bestselling author Bill McKibben The Waste Makers Vance Packard, Vance Oakley

Packard, 1961 The Washington Waste-makers George Johnson, 1963 Waste and Want Susan Strasser, 2024-03-26 An unprecedented look at that most commonplace act of everyday life throwing things out and how it has transformed American society Strasser reads our American history in our tea leaves and countless tons of other domestic garbage as she traces the changing meanings of waste and thrift from Colonial times to the present The Boston Globe Winner of the Abel Wolman Award of the Public Works Historical Society Susan Strasser's pathbreaking histories of housework and the rise of the mass market have become classics in the literature of consumer culture Here she turns to an essential but neglected part of that culture the trash it produces and finds in it an unexpected wealth of meaning Before the twentieth century streets and bodies stank but trash was nearly nonexistent With goods and money scarce almost everything was reused Strasser paints a vivid picture of an America where scavenger pigs roamed the streets swill children collected kitchen garbage and itinerant peddlers traded manufactured goods for rags and bones Over the last hundred years however Americans have become hooked on convenience disposability fashion and constant technological change the rise of mass consumption has led to waste on a previously unimaginable scale Lively and colorful Waste and Want recaptures a hidden part of our social history vividly illustrating that what counts as trash depends on who's counting and that what we throw away defines us as much as what we keep Waste and Want shows to startling effect how radically both our notions of trash and our means of coping with it have altered over the years The Washington Post A vibrant social history of American attitudes toward superfluous or unusable material items The book spills over with fascinating facts Publishers Weekly Waste Makers Vance Packard, 1978-05-03 The Ethics of Waste Gay Hawkins, 2006 We spend a good amount of time in our lives managing waste washing ourselves taking out the trash sorting recyclables going to the toilet deleting e-mail picking out old clothes to give to charity filling the compost bin multitasking to save time clipping coupons to save money But waste is much more than what we want to get rid of or avoid Far beyond terms like rubbish trash or litter the idea of waste can provoke a minefield of emotions and moral anxieties Gay Hawkins explores the ethical significance of waste in everyday life from the broadest conceptions of waste and loss to how the environmental movement has affected the ways we think about garbage the ways we deal with it and the ways in which we view others' reactions to waste Do we feel virtuous for reusing a plastic bag Do we disdain those who throw away aluminum cans At what point does personal waste become public responsibility How does this public conscience affect policy Placing these ideas into historical social and cultural perspective this thoughtful book seeks ways to change ecologically destructive practices without recourse to guilt moralism or despair Vance Packard & American Social Criticism Daniel Horowitz,1994 Traces the influence of Packard s early life on his works on social criticism and notes his viewpoints in the context of a writer lacking academic affiliation Paper-Maker and British Paper Trade Journal ,1921 Paper Makers Monthly Journal ,1910 Bibliography of Pulp and Paper Manufacture ,1929 The Waste Makers Harry Elmer Barnes,1961 House & Garden ,1917 War on Waste Louis Blumberg,Robert Gottlieb,1989 Examines the debate on the environmental issue of garbage control Railway Age ,1943 Directory, 1891/92-1923 Manchester royal exchange, ltd,1903 The General directory of South Africa 1890, 91-98/99, 1903-12 Edwards Dennis and co, ltd,1896 Tariff Hearings United States.
