

WAY TOWARD HEALTH

"ideas are vital"

Your ideas about yourself are, vital in the Larger context of a healthy lifetime.

The condition of your heart is affected, for example, by your own feelings about it. If you consider yourself to be cold-hearted, or heartless those feelings will have a significant effect upon that physical organ. If you feel broken-hearted, then you will also have that feeling reflected in one way or another in the physical organ itself.
