World Chess Championship Candidates' Tournament - Budapest 1950 E. G. R. Cordingley, 2006-04

The World Championship Candidates Tournament of 1950 marked a fresh phase in the history of the world title. Hitherto the champion had chosen his challenger of course bearing in mind such pressures as public opinion and prize purses on offer. Now after the interregnum caused by the death of Alekhine as incumbent in 1946 FIDE the World Chess Federation instituted a regular series of qualifying events to determine the rightful challenger to the chess throne. Budapest 1950 was to be Bronstein's finest hour coming from behind he caught his imperturbable compatriot Boleslavsky at the finishing post and then squeezed ahead of him in the play off. The notes to this great event which also featured such immortals as Smyslov, Keres and Najdorf are by the British publishing pioneer Cordingley while the comments to the tie breaking match are furnished by the world champion of chess journalists Grandmaster emeritus Harry Golombek OBE based on his insights for the British Chess Magazine. As we know Bronstein advanced to challenge Botvinnik for the world title but faltered at the final hurdle. That epic clash is covered in the companion Hardinge Simpole volume World Chess Championship 1951 by William Winter and R G Wade ISBN 1843820846. This mighty clash between the top two Soviet Grandmasters was Botvinnik's first title defence after becoming World Champion in 1948. Amazingly the man who had dominated Soviet and World chess was only able to defend his title by the skin of his teeth after a most ferocious and determined onslaught from his youthful challenger David Bronstein. The controversial 23rd game where a demoralised Bronstein may have resigned prematurely was the key to Botvinnik's ultimate success. This book was written by two expert eye witnesses former British Champion and International Master William Winter and Bob Wade International Master vice president of FIDE the World Chess Federation and later to be awarded the OBE for services to chess and chess education. Together these two acknowledged experts of the game give a thrilling first hand account of the intense intellectual drama of one of the most evenly fought battles in chess history.

Botvinnik versus Smyslov and Petrosian Mikhail Botvinnik, 2023-08-29 The writings of Mikhail Moiseevich Botvinnik 1911-1995 are legendary And Botvinnik's legacy is deeply imprinted in the DNA of every grandmaster today says Andy Soltis in his foreword to this book The Patriarch took professionalism in chess to a new level and was the first to emphasize preparation what a player does before a game plays an enormous if not decisive role in what happens during a game In this book Botvinnik writes the story of the three clashes with his compatriot Vasily Smyslov matches full of tension between two virtually equal opponents and his match with Tigran Petrosian which marks the end of an era the mighty Botvinnik lost his world title fifteen years after he conquered the highest crown for the first time The first part of this book gives Botvinnik's view of three World Championship matches and how he prepared for them The matches were as great a clash of personalities as in any world championship as much as Karpov versus Kasparov While Botvinnik played the role of a stern father Smyslov was like the smiling easy going uncle Botvinnik was proud of what he called his hard character Smyslov seemed to get along with everyone His attitude was to try to do his best and let fate decide The last part of the book is the gripping account of a heroic battle The ageing Botvinnik desperately tries to bounce back after his Armenian opponent Tigran Petrosian has taken an early lead but ultimately The Patriarch fails Mikhail Botvinnik one of the greatest chess players of all time analyses many of the games reveals his match strategy and comments on the strategic choices of his opponent This important historical document also features annotations and writings by Smyslov Petrosian and other top grandmasters the games of a secret training match by Botvinnik and Botvinnik's legendary notebooks including the final one containing his preparation for a match with Bobby Fischer in 1969 a match that was never to be
