Technics and Civilization Lewis Mumford,1934      Technics and Civilization Lewis Mumford,1965      The Future of Technics & Civilization Lewis Mumford,1986 A brilliant survey of our response to changing technology which sets out the prerequisites for a rational use of our discoveries and inventions as a means of human liberation rather than enslavement

The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption Emil Brunner,2014-10-10      Leisure and Culture C. Rojek,1999-10-28 This is the latest book on leisure from one of the leading figures in the field of leisure studies It makes a major contribution in considering leisure as a primary aspect of cultural life Rojek treats modern culture as performative That is there are strong pressures on us to keep busy even if we are busy doing nothing Leisure is analysed as a status placing activity The implications of the post work thesis for leisure the role of inequality in leisure practice are explored in interesting and novel ways Perhaps the most notable feature of the book is the discussion of the abnormal forms of leisure and the attack on the medicalized model of society This book will be required reading for anyone interested in leisure studies and cultural studies      The California Immigration and Housing Bulletin ,1920      Dogmatics II Emil Brunner,2025-04-24

One of the great twentieth century works of theology Emil Brunner s Dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology Finding a path between Barth and Bultmann Brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of God creation and redemption and the doctrine of the church and of faith These foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students illuminating how modern Protestant theology was formed in the last century The first volume serves as an introduction to Brunner s view of dogmatics setting out the nature position and necessity of dogmatics before exploring the many facets of the doctrine of God In detailed vigorous explanation Brunner considers the nature and will of God including his name his holiness his wisdom and his glory Thorough insightful and extensive this first volume is an illuminating beginning to this series The second volume explores the fundamental concepts of the protestant doctrine from creation and the creator to man s position within creation sin and its consequences and the saving work of Jesus Brunner explores all of the possibilities of these fundamentals and his detailed thoughtful arguments are designed as he says to set us free to have a faith which is based on nothing save the Love of God revealed in Jesus Christ The third and final volume focusses on the theology of the Church as a reflection of God s self revelation through the Holy Spirit and an eternal consummation of Divine self communication Drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes Brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers      California Immigration and Housing Bulletin California. Commission of Immigration and Housing,1920

Christianity and Civilization Emil Brunner,1948      Americanization California. New Essays on the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory Alfred J. Drake, 2009 New Essays on the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory offers fifteen essays covering a variety of authors and topics related to the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory Institut f 1 4r Sozialforschung that flourished from the 1920s in connection with the University of Frankfurt in Germany and then abroad The volume offers reflections on the Frankfurt School TM s critical dialogue with philosophical predecessors such as Marx and Nietzsche elucidates key debates between Frankfurt School authors and contemporaries and addresses the continuing significance of the Frankfurt School in the postmodern age with reference to major thinkers such as Fredric Jameson Antonio Negri Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Lacan Readers will find a lively but respectful debate on the strengths and limitations of Frankfurt notions about technology oenegative dialectics the Shoah and the utopian dimension of political thought among other concerns The aim of contributors throughout has been to broaden readers TM understanding of the sophistication and integrity of Frankfurt School thought rather than reducing it to the level of the formulaic or polemical Music theory the representation of urban spaces in prose and image and the theorization of childhood find a place in this appropriately diverse collection with essays on Lewis Mumford and Siegfried Kracauer broadening its scope

From Stars to Brains: Milestones in the Planetary Evolution of Life and Intelligence Andrew Y. Glikson, 2019-02-18 The permutation of basic atoms nitrogen hydrogen oxygen carbon and phosphorus into the biomolecules DNA and RNA subsequently evolved in cells and brains defining the origin of life and intelligence remains unexplained Equally the origin of the genetic information and the intertwined nature of hardware and software involved in the evolution of bio molecules and the cells are shrouded in mystery This treatise aims at exploring individual and swarm behaviour patterns which potentially hint at as yet unknown biological principles It reviews theories of evolution with perspectives from the earth sciences commencing with the earliest observed records of life This is followed by reviews and discussion of the building blocks of life marine and terrestrial communities the arthropods birds and finally humans It is suggested that further to the mutation natural selection processes established by Darwin and Wallace an understanding of the evolution of intelligence remains little understood A directionality of evolutionary trajectories is evident not least the purposeful thinking process of humans as well as animals It is not clear how directional intelligence manifested for example by the collective intelligence of arthropod colonies has evolved from mutation natural selection processes Potential clues for the understanding of life and evolution are provided by Aristotle s dictum of the whole being greater than the sum of the parts Niels Bohr s principle of quantum complementarity and George Ellis theory of top down causality Inherent in the question of the origin of life is an anthropocentric bias related to the self referential Anthropic Principle and theological paradigms of man s supposed dominion over all other species The Anthropic Principle however should be capable of being circumvented using the scientific falsification method assuming universal verified constants of physics The phenomenon of the human mastery of fire and the splitting of the atom leading to the seventh major mass extinction of species remains incomprehensible

Lewis Mumford Thomas Parke Hughes, Agatha C. Hughes, 1990 This collection of essays by leading scholars explores the numerous and brilliant facets of Lewis Mumford s insights into technology and modern culture Characterized as one of the last of the American public intellectuals Mumford has written extensively about those issues and problems that are most challenging and troubling for modern society His Technics and Civilization 1934 and the two volume The Myth of the Machine 1967 and 1970 still provide an agenda for discussion of technology and culture Mumford foresightedly warned against simplistic technological determinism by exploring the ways in which values shape technology He is generally recognized as a seminal figure who laid the foundations for the fields of American Studies and the History of Technology This compelling portrait of Mumford written in an accessible style and exploring highly controversial timely issues makes a substantial contribution to the rapidly growing interest in the interaction of technology and culture and is must reading for students of the history and sociology of science and technology American studies and American intellectual and cultural history
