Thoughts About Art:

Thoughts about Art Philip Gilbert Hamerton, 1871 Thinking Art Antoon van den Braembussche, 2009-09-29 In the twentieth century avant garde movements have pushed the concept of art far beyond its traditional boundaries In this dynamical process of constant renewal the prestige of thinking about art as a legitimizing practice has come to the fore So it is hardly surprising that the past decades have been characterized by a revival or even breakthrough of philosophy of art as a discipline However the majority of books on aesthetics fail to combine a systematical philosophical discourse with a real exploration of art practice Thinking Art attempts to deal with this traditional shortcoming It is indeed not only an easily accessible and systematic account of the classical modern and postmodern theories of art but also concludes each chapter with an artist's studio in which the practical relevance of the discussed theory is amply demonstrated by concrete examples Moreover each chapter ends with a section on further reading in which all relevant literature is discussed in detail Thinking Art provides its readers with a theoretical framework that can be used to think about art from a variety of perspectives More particularly it shows how a fruitful cross fertilization between theory and practice can be created This book can be used as a handbook within departments of philosophy history of art media and cultural studies cultural history and of course within art academies Though the book explores theories of art from Plato to Derrida it does not presuppose any acquaintance with philosophy from its readers It can thus be read also by artists art critics museum directors and anyone interested in the meaning of art

The Arts and Their Mission Rudolf Steiner, 2023-10-03 8 lectures Oslo and Dornach May 18 June 9 1923 CW 276 Having remained stationary we can no longer see the spiritual in the physical we consider only the physical as such This is materialism A current has entered human evolution that is if I may use the expression hostile to development Humanity shuns the coining of new concepts it prefers to continue on with the old We must overcome this hostility toward development When we instead become friends of development then we will acquire a quite natural relationship to anthroposophical spiritual development and pass over from antiquated needs to the truly modern need of humanity namely to raise ourselves to the spiritual Rudolf Steiner May 27 1923 In these inspired lectures from 1923 Rudolf Steiner weaves the different art forms including painting architecture and music into a grand tapestry of human experience and expression In the process he reveals how each artistic medium contains its own mysteries how architecture arises out of the soul's need to transition from the spatial to the spiritual world after death how the art of costuming arises out of the soul's pre earthly experiences in the world of spirit and is thus an expression in color and form of the soul's original nature how sculpture emerges from an inner sense for the creative formative forces of the etheric body how painting can overcome spatial perspective through a new relationship to the world of colors through color perspective how music can receive a new direction from the depth dimension of the single tone which expands into melody and harmony how poetry can be deepened through an inner grasp of the qualities inherent in recitation and declamation through creative speech and how the new art of eurythmy arising out of the movement activity of the human archetype stands midway between mime indicative gesture and dance ecstatic gesture as an art of expressive gesture Thus Steiner outlines a path toward the reunion of that ancient trinity science truth art beauty and religion goodness It was in the womb of the ancient mysteries where knowledge was not only a matter for the mind but was carried over into religious rites that the arts had their origin Today we learn facts and figures and believe we have understood reality To an ancient humanity this intellectual mode of understanding would have seemed lifeless and sterile In the ancient world knowledge became lived artistic experience and religious deed Modern humanity must once again give wings to knowledge must seek a deepening of the cognitive life through transformative artistic feeling if we are to find our way out of our world crisis which is at its core a crisis of the soul This remarkable volume packed with profound and far reaching insights bears within it the seeds for the renewal of the arts in our time Includes four color plates of Rudolf Steiner s blackboard drawings This book is a translation of Das K nstlerische in seiner Weltmission 4th ed Rudolf Steiner Verlag 2002 GA 276 Cover Image Bright Noonday by David Newbatt from Goethe The Fairy Tale of the Green Snake and the Beautiful Lily Wynstones Press 2006 The American Magazine of Art ,1928 Language, Thought, Art and Existence Mwanaka, Tendai R.,2017-08-09 This book comprises 19 creative non fiction pieces and essays centred around the topics of language thought art and existence seen through the prism of practising artist in contemporary Africa The collection continues with Zimbabwe s Tendai Mwanaka s creative non fiction ideology of presenting non fiction in a creative fresh easy reading simple language With most of the essays driven by personal stories the author ably renders them accessible to a wide spectrum of readers from the scholarly to the journalistic and the general The pieces are grouped according to the topics with the language essays starting the book followed by thought existential and art essays In tune with the adage the personal is political Mwanaka lets the personal drive these essays as he tries to investigate and conversationally navigate his thoughts beliefs feelings and experience on language existence and art This is an invaluable contribution to the academic establishment social theorists linguists literary theorists journalists activists and the general readership Essays on Aesthetics John Fisher,1983 Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1909 Thoughts About Art Philip Gilbert Hamerton,2023-08-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 The School Arts Magazine Pedro Joseph Lemos,1920 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1900 Outlook and Independent ,1901 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1907 New Outlook ,1901 Architect ,1876 Index-guide to Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern Edward Cornelius Towne,1899 Catalogue...authors, Titles, Subjects, and Classes Brooklyn Public Library,1878 Thoughts About Art Philip G. Hamerton,2020-01-07 Autobiography Rudolf Steiner,2006-05 4 lectures Dornach June 28 July 18 1923 CW 350 Truth and striving for truth must taste good to you and lies once you are conscious of them must taste bitter and poisonous You must not only know that human judgments have color but also that printer s ink nowadays is mostly deadly nightshade juice You must be able to experience this in all honesty and rectitude and once you can do so you will be in a state of spiritual transformation Rudolf Steiner What is the relationship between coming to see the secrets of the universe and one s own view of the world How far must one go before finding the higher worlds on the path of natural science Do cosmic forces influence all of humanity What connection do plants have with the human being and the human body In answering these questions Steiner covers a wide range of topics from the development of independent thinking and the ability to think backward to the uses of what seems boring and the reversal of thinking between the physical and spiritual worlds and from the physiology of dreams to living into nature and the spiritual dimension of various foods we eat As always in his lectures to the workers Steiner s style is clear direct and accessible This volume is a translation from German of four lectures from Rhythmen im Kosmos und im Menschenwesen Wie kommt man zum Schauen der geistigen Welt GA 350 Art Index ,1930
