Were All Doing Time:

We're All Doing Time Bo Lozoff, 1985 Bo Lozoff is the director of Human Kindness Foundation and its internationally acclaimed Prison Ashram Project His writings workshops and tapes have helped countless people transform their lives into sacred practice even in some of our worst prisons prisons of selfishness fear anger and addiction as well as bars and steel

Doing Time Jack N. Lawson, 2010-08-19 Doing Time is the compelling true to life story of a young woman Annabel Lee who is wrongly convicted and imprisoned for a crime committed by her wayward husband Beginning before her birth the story opens in the rural American South of the 1950s and tracks the brutal relationship into which Annabel Lee is born As she grows Annabel Lee cannot escape the cycle of violence and abuse that surrounds her Naively she elopes with her teenaged lover in the vain hope for an escape from her cruel past only to discover that she has entered upon an equally harrowing stint in a women s prison In the unlikely fellowship behind bars and through her relationships with inmates staff and particularly the prison s chaplain Annabel Lee courageously moves from the scarred existence as a victim to the life of a survivor Filled with the local color of life in rural North Carolina between the 1950s and 1970s Doing Time is a poignant and at times humorous story of multi generational trauma and abuse and the journey of the human spirit to healing and redemption

Doing Time for Peace Rosalie G. Riegle, 2013-01-07 In this compelling collection of oral histories more than seventy five peacemakers describe how they say no to war making in the strongest way possible by engaging in civil disobedience and paying the consequences in jail or prison These courageous resisters leave family and community and life on the outside in their efforts to direct U S policy away from its militarism Many are Catholic Workers devoting their lives to the works of mercy instead of the works of war They are homemakers and carpenters and social workers and teachers who are often called faith based activists They speak from the left of the political perspective providing a counterpoint to the faith based activism of the fundamentalist Right In their own words the narrators describe their motivations and their preparations for acts of resistance the actions themselves and their trials and subsequent jail time We hear from those who do their time by caring for their families and managing communities while their partners are imprisoned Spouses and children talk frankly of the strains on family ties that a life of working for peace in the world can cause The voices range from a World War II conscientious objector to those protesting the recent war in Iraq The book includes sections on resister families the Berrigans and Jonah House the Plowshares Communities the Syracuse Peace Council and Catholic Worker houses and communities The introduction by Dan McKanan situates these activists in the long tradition of resistance to war and witness to peace

Miller's Children James Garbarino, 2018-02-27 Miller's Children is a comprehensive look at the consequences of the US Supreme Court s decision in the case of Miller v Alabama which outlawed mandatory life without parole sentences for juvenile murderers This book describes the author s fieldwork as a psychological expert witness in more than forty resentencing cases of juveniles affected by the Miller decision and follow up rulings providing a wide ranging review of research on human development in adolescence and early adulthood It focuses on how and why convicted teenage murderers have been able to accomplish dramatic rehabilitation and transformation emphasizing the role of spiritual development education reflection and mentoring in that process Provided by publisher Big Time Jen Spyra,2022-07-05 The debut collection of raucous dark strange satirical stories from the former Late Show with Stephen Colbert writer and New Yorker contributor featuring a foreword by Stephen Colbert Jen Spyra s stories are shocking silly smart and absurdly funny Underline both those words I don t care how much it costs Tina Fey A bride so desperate to get in shape for her wedding that she enrolls in a new kind of workout program that promises the moon but costs more than she bargained for A snowman who on the wish of a child comes to life in a decidedly less savory way than in the childhood classic And in the title story a time hopping 1940s starlet tries to claw her way to the top in modern day Hollywood despite being ridiculously unwoke In this uproarious addictive debut Jen Spyra takes a culture that seems almost beyond parody and holds it up to a funhouse mirror immersing the reader in a world of prehistoric influencers woodland creatures plagued by millennial neuroses and an all out birthday bash determined to be the most lavish celebration of all time by any means necessary Welcome brave soul to the world of Jen Spyra Cole v.
