The Transfer:

The Transfer of Learning Sarah Leberman, Lex McDonald, Stephanie Doyle, 2006 The book addresses a crucial issue for all involved in education and training the transfer of learning to new and different contexts Educators employers and learners face the problem of ensuring that what is learnt in the classroom is able to be adapted and used in the workplace It focuses on adult learners in professional and vocational contexts The authors provide an accessible book on the transfer of learning which draws on multi disciplinary perspectives from education psychology and management The Transfer of Learning will be useful both for postgraduate students and for practitioners wanting to deepen their understanding of transfer and for those interested in practical applications It combines theory and practice from international research and the authors own case studies of transfer involving learners engaged in professional development and study towards qualifications Theories of adult learning change and lifelong learning are discussed in relation to the transfer of learning The purpose of this book is to emphasise to tertiary educators and trainers the importance of transfer and in doing so highlight the participants voices as central foci in coming to an understanding of the process By doing this it balances the literature which has to date emphasized transfer from a trainer s and or organization s perspective There has been little if any substantive material on tertiary transfer issues and yet demands are increasing for tertiary education providers to be more accountable and more focused on developing students ability to use their learning in everyday work situations The book is unique in that it adopts a phenomenological perspective and underscores the significance of the participants voices in understanding issues The Transfer of Undertakings in the Public Sector Colin Bourn, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 This volume discusses the impact of the transfer of undertakings regime upon the public sector particularly focusing on the interaction between the protection of employee rights and the restructuring and modernization of public services The crux of the book is the interaction of market led policies in the public sector such as compulsory competitive tendering best value and the PFI with the protection of employee rights on the transfer of employment It considers the evolving law on the scope of a relevant transfer under the European Acquired Rights Directive and the TUPE regulations before reviewing the present state of the law on dismissals variation of terms pensions and employee consultation in transfer related situations The book incorporates consideration of the text of the 1998 revision of the Acquired Rights Directive Internal Revenue Bulletin United States.
