The Clearing:

The Clearing Tim Gautreaux,2003 In the years before World War I Byron Aldridge led a charmed life as the charismatic heir apparent to a Pennsylvania timber empire and to his younger brother Randolph he was both guide and idol But he returned from France a different man and was not home long before those festering memories sent him drifting from one settlement to another working as a lawman and then disappearing altogether Finally his family discovers him in a remote Louisiana mill town promptly buys the property and puts Randolph in charge of this place unlike any he has ever seen where men are surrounded by cypress swamps and menace leading lives of ceaseless backbreaking toil punctuated only by the brutal entertainments provided by the Sicilians who control the whiskey and card games and girls and by the rough justice meted out by the still tormented Byron Randolph struggles to understand him and to regain his trust even as their wives presently contend with their own hopes and disappointments and while the future grows uncertain yet fearsome all around them This is a story about family about marriage about what sustains people through loss it is a reckoning of the sacrifices they must make in order to establish a community in the deepest wilderness and to defend what is most precious to them Palpably atmospheric with a remarkable range of characters and emotions The Clearing displays more powerfully than ever before Tim Gautreaux's masterful understanding of time place and human nature
