The Inner Way:

Inner Way Joseph J. Allen, 1999 Inner Way is a call to reawaken the critical ministry of spiritual direction in which a person whether in a life crisis or merely seeking Christian growth can make great spiritual gains Rufus Jones (1863-1948) Claus Bernet, 2009 Rufus Jones 1863 1948 helped organize the Quaker feeding effort saving millions from starvation after the First World War In Germany he is best known for having travelled to Berlin to seek a personal meeting with Hitler after the Kristallnacht in 1938 And at the conclusion of a long life devoted to service it was largely due to Jones that the American Friends Service Committee was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1947 But Jones was also the quintessential American scholar seeking to harmonize theory and practice He was a pivotal figure of the 20th century who stayed in close touch with authors and statesmen the world over He earned a reputation as a modern mystic and an active pacifist and was regarded as the moral conscience of his era His scholarship encompassed education and pedagogy philosophical questions church and Quaker history as well as the political issues of the day Jones dealt with such issues as justice democracy and child rearing His ideas are still alive today and still arouse controversy He was particularly anxious to avoid the cultivation of an elite pleading instead for individual growth and personality development Over the course of his life he was awarded twelve academic titles taught at numerous universities delivered countless lectures and was one of the first theologians to recognise the significance of radio and to make full use of it To this day Rufus Jones is still honored as a seer Protestant mystic and even as a Master Quaker and Quaker Giant It is time also to take a critical look at these honors

James Ishmael Ford, 2024-07-23 An intimate mystery encompasses you and tugs upon your heart. What does it mean to follow that tug across the arc of a spiritual life? Reflecting out of more than fifty years of practice in Zen Buddhism, Unitarian Universalism, and other contemplative traditions, James Ishmael Ford invites us into a journey through life's mysteries and the stages of spiritual development. Lightly structured by the archetypal Buddhist oxherding images, Ford's exploration is rooted in the Zen way while being deeply enriched by various strains of world mysticism. The book, sprinkled with insights and quotes from Buddhist, Daoist, and Christian traditions, serves as a map and a companion to spiritual seekers or pilgrims, whether within one religious tradition or cobbling together a way of one's own. Here is the most natural of all natural experiences, writes Ford: In the midst of our suffering, our longing, our desperation, we capture a glimpse. Something touches us. And with that, if we are lucky and really notice some movement of some spirit within us, we turn our attention to the intimate way.
