The Blackboard Jungle Evan Hunter, 2017-06-13 The shocking and suspense packed bestseller about one teacher's stand against student violence and the basis for the Academy Award nominated film The New York Times Book Review After serving his country in World War II Richard Dadier decides to become an English teacher and for the sin of wanting to make a difference he's hired at North Manual Trades High School A tough vocational school in the East Bronx Manual Trades is home to angry unruly teenagers exiled from New York City's regular public schools On his first day Dadier endures relentless mockery and ridicule and makes an enemy of the student body by rescuing a female colleague from a vicious attack His fellow educators are bitter disillusioned and too afraid of their pupils to risk turning their backs on them in the classroom But Dadier refuses to give up without a fight Over the course of the semester he tries again and again to break through the wall of hatred and scorn and win his students respect The more he learns about their difficult circumstances the more convinced he becomes that a good teacher can make a difference in their lives His idealism will be put to the ultimate test however when a long simmering power struggle with his most intimidating student explodes into a violent schoolroom showdown The basis for the blockbuster film starring Glenn Ford and Sidney Poitier Evan Hunter's The Blackboard Jungle is a brutal unflinching look at the dark side of American education and an early masterpiece from the author who went on to write the gritty 87th Precinct series as Ed McBain Drawn from Hunter's own experiences as a New York City schoolteacher it is a nightmarish but authentic drama that packs a knockout punch Time
