El Tercer Pais Michael S. Malone, 2020-10 The product of scores of interviews with citizens of San Diego and Tijuana from everyday working folks to the leading figures this is the first book ever to look at the two hundred year history of the two cities and chart how their relationship has evolved from conflict to interdependence to cooperation El Tercer Pais combines hard nosed journalism with insiders perspectives to create a celebratory look at how the two cities have gone beyond decades of distrust and wariness to become the most successful bi national bi lingual twin cities on the planet and a model for comparable border cities everywhere And further a vision for deeper collaboration between the three countries of the North American continent

Border Lives Sergio R. Chávez,2016 Border Lives tells the story of former current and future border crossers who live in Tijuana and use the border as a resource to construct their livelihoods Drawing on almost a year and a half of ethnographic data Sergio Ch vez demonstrates the ways in which the border can be both a resource and a constraint on people s lives
