Bloomsbury South Peter Simpson,2016-07-20 For two decades in Christchurch, New Zealand, a cast of extraordinary men and women remade the arts. Various, between 1933 and 1953, Christchurch was the home of Angus and Bensemann, McCahon, Curnow, and Glover and Baxter, the Group, the Caxton Press, and the Little Theatre. Landfall and Tomorrow, Ngaio Marsh, and Douglas Lilburn. It was a city in which painters lived with writers, writers promoted musicians, in which the arts and artists from different forms were deeply intertwined. And it was a city where artists developed a powerful synthesis of European modernist influences and an assertive New Zealand nationalism that gave mid-century New Zealand cultural life its particular shape. In this book, Simpson tells the remarkable story of the rise and fall of this Bloomsbury South and the arts and artists that made it. Simpson brings to life the individual talents and their passions, but he also takes us inside the scenes that they created together: Bethell and her visiting coterie of younger poets, Glover and Bensemann's exacting typography at the Caxton Press, the yearly exhibitions and aesthetic clashes of the Group, McCahon and Baxter's developing friendship, the effects of Brasch's patronage, Marsh's Shakespearian re-creations at the Little Theatre. Simpson re-creates a Christchurch we have lost, where a group of artists collaborated to create a distinctively New Zealand art which spoke to the condition of their country as it emerged into the modern era.

Greyhounds of the Sea Carl C. Cutler,1930 The Complete Works John Lothrop Motley,1900 History Of Australia (Volumes 1 & 2) Manning Clark,1999-09-13 A History of Australia From Earliest Times to 1838 deals with the pre-white settlement era and the earliest years of European colonisation through to the establishment of an increasingly settled society and the expeditions of the great inland explorers. This is not a general Australian history; it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis. It is a work of art, a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent. History come alive.

The Founding of English America

John May, 2024-05-15 In 1577 John Dee a scientist who served as an advisor to Queen Elizabeth I proposed to her the creation of colonies in the New World Neither Elizabeth nor Walter Raleigh imagined the task would be so difficult or take more than 30 years The effort started with an exploration of the coast of today s North Carolina and the settlement of a colony on Roanoke Island in 1585 This ended tragically and became known as The Lost Colony its fate a mystery to this day James I resumed the effort with the founding of Jamestown in 1607 on an island in the James River in today s Virginia This book relates the histories of the Roanoke and Jamestown colonies to enable a full understanding of the founding of English America Important events in America s beginnings including the wreck of the Sea Venture which inspired William Shakespeare s The Tempest the Algonquin chief Powhatan s plans to make the newcomers useful to him and the relationship between Pocahontas and English Captain John Smith are highlighted
