Grayson, 2026-01-05 The world didn't end overnight It fractured And men like him stepped into the cracks When society collapses survival isn't about hope it's about control As cities burn and chains of command disintegrate one soldier refuses to fall with them Forged in discipline shaped by betrayal and hardened by impossible choices a British Army major rises from the chaos with a single belief order must be taken not restored Through collapsing military strongholds desperate civilians and the moral rot of a dying world his ascent is anything but heroic Each decision saves lives or costs them Each step forward strips away the man he once was replacing him with something colder sharper and far more dangerous This is not a story of zombies at the gates It is the story of what happens after when leadership becomes domination when survival demands brutality and when the most terrifying threat left standing is human The Rise of the Iron Major is a dark character driven apocalypse thriller exploring power loyalty and the thin line between protector and tyrant Perfect for fans of gritty military fiction morally complex anti heroes and post collapse worlds where humanity is the real battleground
