Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2019-12-26 Women are the exclusive focus of the 38th volume of Geographers For the first time in the series history the entire volume is devoted to important work of distinguished female geographers amply demonstrating how these scholars professional lives enrich the discipline s history It also illustrates how reading and writing their biographies not only expands our understanding of geography s past but points to its more diverse future The collection includes biographies of Doreen Massey winner of geography s Nobel prize the prix Vautrin Lud for her remarkable contribution to geography and neighbouring disciplines which discovered the importance of space through her work Helen Wallis geographer and historian of cartography who for many years had charge of the UK s foremost collection of maps Alice Saunier Se t who applied her geographical training and formidable energy to teaching and educational reform in France Isabel Margarida Andr who lived through a turbulent political period in her native Portugal and meticulously investigated its effect on women and political geography and the many women who helped to create the UK s first Geography department the University of Oxford s School of Geography including Fanny Herbertson Nora MacMunn Marjorie Sweeting Mary Marshall Barbara Kennedy and other women geographers who are memorialised in a group article The Practice of Geography Instruction in American Schools Kevin Reilly Page, 1994 Geographies of Practice Transfer Judith Wiemann, 2022-04-13 Employing a practice theoretical approach this study centers on how German multinational enterprises transfer three selected production related training practices to their subsidiaries in emerging economies onboarding of new employees shop floor inducting of machine operators and German style dual apprenticeship training for specialized technicians Empirical findings are drawn from three research regions Greater Shanghai Area China Metropolitan Areas Mumbai Pune Bangalore India and Central Mexico Mexico In doing so this study contributes to debates about the internationalization of multinational enterprises conceptualizing internationalization through the lens of practice transfer Practice transfer is still an understudied phenomenon in economic geography while international business studies have a long standing research interest in this area This study provides a bridge between these two disciplinary fields connecting debates in economic geography on proximity distance and knowledge transfer with organization studies based research in international business studies all the while providing a unique new perspective by developing a practice theoretical approach to explain practice transfer across distance and between territories

Women and Cartography in the Progressive Era Christina E. Dando, 2017-08-15 In the twenty first century we speak of a geospatial revolution but over one hundred years ago another mapping revolution was in motion Women s lives were in motion they were playing a greater role in public on a variety of fronts As women became more mobile physically socially politically they used and created geographic knowledge and maps The maps created by American women were in motion too created shared distributed as they worked to transform their landscapes Long overlooked this women s work represents maps and mapping that today we would term community or participatory mapping critical cartography and public geography These historic examples of women generated mapping represent the adoption of cartography and geography as part of women s work While cartography and map use are not new the adoption and application of this technology and form of communication in women s work and in multiple examples in the context of their social work is unprecedented This study explores the implications of women s use of this technology in creating and presenting information and knowledge and wielding it to their own ends This pioneering and original book will be essential reading for those working in Geography Gender Studies Women s Studies Politics and History

Placing the Enlightenment Charles W. J. Withers, 2008-09-15 The Enlightenment was the age in which the world became modern challenging tradition in favor of reason freedom and critical inquiry While many aspects of the Enlightenment have been rigorously scrutinized its origins and motivations its principal characters and defining features its legacy and modern relevance the geographical dimensions of the era have until now largely been ignored Placing the Enlightenment contends that the Age of Reason was not only a period of pioneering geographical investigation but also an age with spatial dimensions to its content and concerns Investigating the role space and location played in the creation and reception of Enlightenment ideas Charles W J Withers draws from the fields of art science history geography politics and religion to explore the legacies of Enlightenment national identity navigation discovery and knowledge Ultimately geography is revealed to be the source of much of the raw material from which philosophers fashioned theories of the human condition Lavishly illustrated and engagingly written Placing the Enlightenment will interest Enlightenment specialists from across the disciplines as well as any scholar curious about the role geography has played in the making of the modern world

Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates Samuel Halkett, J. A. Hjalta, Thomas Hill Jamieson, 1876

significant trends and global issues including environmental sustainability and inequalities in wealth and health arguing that these are outcomes of the ways in which social practices interact and combine across space and time Engaging with the question of how connections are made between practices and how past and present combinations make some futures more likely than others this book brings practice theory to bear on large problems in society Richly illustrated with examples from the spreading of germs to the history of shipping containers this powerful analysis of how societies hang together and how they change will appeal to scholars and students of sociology and social theory Report of the ...
