Tousled Beauty Green Integer

Douglas Messerli

Tousled Beauty Green Integer:

Tousled Beauty Dieter M. Gräf, 2005 Selection of the young German poet's work emphasising poetry often broken and scruffy from before the 21st century Many of the poems were written on the road in Europe and Asia as well as during a stay at the villa Aurora in Los Angeles in 1999 The poems were translated in unusually close co operation between author and translator with the author even revising some of the German poems in the process

A Little Tour Through European Poetry John Taylor, 2017-09-08 This book is both a sequel to author John Taylor's earlier volume Into the Heart of European Poetry and something different It is a sequel because this volume expands upon the base of the previous book to include many more European poets It is different in that it is framed by stories in which the author juxtaposes his personal experiences involving European poetry or European poets as he travels through different countries where the poets have lived or worked Taylor explores poetry from the Czech Republic Denmark Lithuania Albania Romania Turkey and Portugal all of which were missing in the previous gathering analyzes heady verse written in Galician and presents an important poet born in the Chuvash Republic His tour through European poetry also adds discoveries from countries whose languages he reads fluently Italy Germany and German speaking Switzerland Greece and France Taylor's model is Valery Larbaud to whom his criticism with its liveliness and analytical clarity is often compared Readers will enjoy a renewed dialogue with European poetry especially in an age when translations are rarely reviewed present in literary journals or studied in schools This book along with Into the Heart of European Poetry motivates a dialogue by bringing foreign poetry out of the specialized confines of foreign language departments

The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century: At Villa Aurora: nine contemporary poets writing in German Douglas Messerli, 2000 The 7th volume in Green Integer's ongoing international poetry series

Antonello's Lion Steve Katz, 2005 In his first novel since Swanny's Ways Steve Katz takes another look at the failure of Humanism in the West through the lens of the great Sicilian master Antonello da Messina A father and son who have never met both set out on quests for meaning in their lives The father is obsessed with Antonello and convinced he can find what he thinks is a lost painting of St Francis He gets lost on the way and disappears The son becomes obsessed with finding out what happened to the father and his discoveries are more than he can absorb This is a double picaresque that takes turns through fantasy sexual follies and wild historical and philosophical speculations The frail positionings of order in art are played against the background of contemporary chaos

BOOK JACKET

Charlie P Richard Kalich, 2005 In Charlie P author Richard Kalich offers us a singularly unique comic and outlandish Everyman A looney tune figure of the American manchild the kind of eternally adolescent men one sees on any American street corner who in his episodic adventures through life loses his penis is completely dismembered suffocated starved and cut in half yet continues to come back for more At age three when his father dies he decides to overcome mortality by becoming immortal By not living his life he will live forever Whether he's persuing the girl of his dreams or a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow Charlie P ends up with no more than a peck on the cheek or robbed blind Even when dead and called to Heaven for an accounting he remains the eternal optimist Now that he is dead and gone he finally has a real chance at achieving his ends He can start over Having never lived his life his life has not yet hardly begun Akin to other great American icons such as Sinclair Lewis's Babbitt Ring Lardner's Al and Forrest Gump Charlie P plumbs the relation between fantasy and reality to offer us a character both asocial and alienated and at the same time at the heart of the American Dream BOOK JACKET Poetry Harriet Monroe,2006
