Other key trade-related legislation includes the Customs Act, 1962, and the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (Table 2.1). The current FTP covers the period 2015-21 and is amended periodically to take into account changing domestic and international economic considerations.

2. Other institutions - Policy advice may also be provided by other institutions within the Central Government, such as the Director General of Foreign Trade (DGFT), the Tariff Commission, and the National Institution for Transforming India (NITI Aayog), established on 1 January 20158; and chambers of commerce, such as the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI).

- Trade policy objectives

1. Global exports - The current FTP (2015-21) aims to increase India's share of global exports from 2% in 2015 to 3.5% by 2020.
2. Export incentives - To achieve these export targets, India uses incentives such as the Merchandise Export from India Scheme (MEIS), the Services Export from India Scheme (SEIS), and credit facilitation, to encourage exports. The objectives of the MEIS and the SEIS under the FTP is to offset infrastructural inefficiencies and associated costs of exporters.
