Where Science And Politics Meet:

Where Science and Politics Meet Jerome Bert Wiesner, 1965 The book mirrors the broad range of scientific and technical issues that confront the modern President Preface Where Science and Politics Meet J. B. Wiesner, 1961

When Politics Meets Religion Marko Veković, Miroljub Jevtić, 2024-08-05 When Politics Meets Religion presents a fresh exploration of the relationship between religion and politics worldwide The volume includes topics covering Europe such as the European far right the contours of European identity and how religious cleavages affect value orientation of Europeans It also covers country focused issues and events such as the influence of Orthodox Christianity in Russia Christian nationalism in the United States the influence of religion on Turkish foreign policy the political role of the Catholic Church in the Philippines Chinese attitudes towards religious deprivatization and how liberation theology found its way from Latin America to the Holy Land The volume is supplemented with several analyses on the intersection between law society and religion It deals with religious mediation and political conflicts how the current religious governance in France affects the Orthodox Jewish community as well as how taxing the church's economic activities can be a contributor to the common good and why Muslims should treat Sharia law as only a moral code in the context of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Through rigorous research case studies and critical analysis this volume explains how religion and politics mix in different settings and why it is important for us to study this complex relationship The volume will appeal to scholars and graduate students of political science and religious studies as well as interested professionals working for non governmental organizations NGOs or governments

Where Science and Politics Meet Jerome B. Wiesner, 1961 When politics meets bureaucracy Christian Lo, 2021-01-05 This book is based on a study of the strategies and tactics applied by municipal bureaucrats and local politicians in the pursuit of political goals in two small Norwegian municipalities The enactment of a bureaucracy within these small and close knit communities offer an insight into how formal and informal relations intersect during the production of public policy By analysing the relation between normative and pragmatic rules regulating political action Christian Lo demonstrates how the efforts to resolve these tensions and dilemmas involve a balancing of alternative sources of political legitimacy Through ethnographic accounts of policy making in action When politics meets bureaucracy offers novel perspectives to the interdisciplinary debate about local governance Most significantly these accounts demonstrate how processes of hierarchical government are inextricably intertwined with broader processes of governance during policy processes thereby dissolving the theoretical and normative separation between the two concepts characterising large parts of the literature By centring its focus on the interconnections between government and governance Lo explores the cultural and historical conditions informing this intertwinement which the author argues enable horizontal alignments that can modify the hierarchical logic of bureaucratic organisations Combining approaches and perspectives from political science sociology and anthropology this book is essential reading for those interested in the inner workings of bureaucratic
