The Poetics of Fragmentation in Contemporary British and American Fiction Vanessa Guignery, Wojciech Drąg, 2019-12-02 The last decades have seen a revival of fragmentation in British and American works of fiction that deny linearity coherence and continuity in favour of disruption gaps and fissures Authors such as Ali Smith David Mitchell and David Shields have sought new ways of representing our global media saturated contemporary experience which differ from modernist and postmodernist experimentations from which the writers nevertheless draw inspiration This volume aims to investigate some of the most important contributions to fragmentary literature from British and American writers since the 1990s with a particular emphasis on texts released in the twenty first century The chapters within examine whether contemporary forms of literary fragmentation constitute a return to the modernist episteme or the fragmented literature of exhaustion of the 1960s mark a continuity with postmodernist aesthetics or signal a deviation from past models and an attempt to reflect today's accelerated culture of social media and over communication Contributors theorise and classify literary fragments examine the relationship between fragmentation and the Zeitgeist influenced by globalisation media saturation and social networks analyse the mechanics of multimodal and multimedial fictions and consider the capacity of literary fragmentation to represent personal or collective trauma and to address ethical concerns They also investigate the ways in which the architecture of the printed book is destabilised and how aesthetic processes involving fragmentation bricolage and or collage raise ontological ethical and epistemological questions about the globalised contemporary world we live in and its relation to the self and the other Besides the aforementioned authors the volume makes reference to the works of J G Ballard Julian Barnes Mark Z Danielewski David Markson Jonathan Safran Foer David Foster Wallace Jeanette Winterson and several others
