Schooling and Children's Behaviour Ann Buchanan, Barbara L. Hudson, 2018-08-17 Published in 1998 this book brings together some of the key findings in parenting and educational programmes from researchers at the University of Oxford working in primary health care educational studies clinical psychology and applied social studies At a time of considerable changes in family life and society in general there is concern that some children are not achieving their potential because of emotional and behavioural difficulties This book looks across the health education and social divide and highlights what we know and what we don't know about effective strategies in helping children and their parents overcome their difficulties Each chapter is written by a different member of the centre at Oxford for Research into Parenting and Children and is based on their research      Stolen Voices: A sadistic step-father.
