Cincinnati Theaters Steven J. Rolfe, Douglas R. Weise, Phil Lind, 2016 Theaters have always been the places where memories are made There on Saturday afternoons children could escape the pressures of growing up to live for two hours in a fantasy world of daring heroes dastardly villains and dazzling magic They were the places where awkward teenage boys could nervously and often clumsily put their arms around equally nervous girls In years past every neighborhood had its own local theater Downtown was home to the great movie palaces ornate portals to a world of motion picture thrills For a unique experience nothing could beat a hot summer night at the drive in Today in the era of the corporate multiplex the great movie palaces are just memories Some neighborhood cinemas are now churches or venues for meetings wedding receptions and small concerts Images of America Cincinnati Theaters looks back at these marvelous old theaters and the days when they were in their prime

Film Composers in America Clifford McCarty, 2000 Film Composers in America is a landmark in the history of film Here renowned film scholar Clifford McCarty has attempted to identify every known composer who wrote background musical scores for films in the United States between 1911 and 1970 With information on roughly 20 000 films the book is an essential tool for serious students of film and a treasure trove for film fans It spans all types of American films from features shorts cartoons and documentaries to nontheatrical works avant garde films and even trailers Meticulously researched over 45 years the book documents the work of more than 1 500 composers from Robert Abramson to Josiah Zuro including the first to score an American film Walter C Simon It includes not only Hollywood professionals but also many composers of concert music as well as popular music and other genres whose cinematic work has never before been fully catalogued The book also features an index that lets readers quickly find the composer for any American film through 1970 To recover this history much of which was lost or never recorded McCarty corresponded with or interviewed hundreds of composers arrangers orchestrators musical directors and music librarians He also conducted extensive research in the archives of the seven largest film studios Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th Century Fox Universal and Warner Bros and wherever possible he based his findings on the most reliable evidence that of the manuscript scores and cue sheets as opposed to less accurate screen credits The result is the definitive guide to the composers and musical scores for the first 60 years of American film

"A" Western Filmmakers Henryk Hoffmann, 2024-10-16 From High Noon to Unforgiven the A Western represents the pinnacle of Western filmmaking More intellectual ambitious and time consuming than the readily produced B or serial Westerns these films rely on hundreds of talented artists This comprehensive reference work provides biographies and Western filmographies for nearly 1 000 men and women who have contributed to at least three A Westerns These contributors are arranged by their role in film production Cinematographers composers actors actresses and directors receive complete biographical treatment writers whose work was used in at least two Westerns are also featured An appendix lists well known actors who have appeared in either one or two A Westerns as specified
