Where God Weeps:

Where God Weeps Werenfried van Straaten, 1988 When God Weeps Joni Eareckson Tada, Steven Estes, 1997 It's easy to trust God when things are going our way and the world makes sense. But when suffering strikes especially seemingly senseless suffering we are filled with doubt and stunned by events spiraling beyond our control. In the midst of suffering we often question the very foundation of our faith our belief in the God who says he loves us. Since our trust and obedience rest on God's character the questions that life's tragedies force us to face are difficult even frightening. Who is God? Can he really be trusted? What are his purposes in the face of suffering? If he can stop suffering why doesn't he? Joni Eareckson Tada a woman who has lived in a wheelchair for more than thirty years and Steve Estes a pastor and one of Joni's closest friends explore the answers. When God Weeps is not so much a book about suffering as it is about God. It tackles tough questions about heaven and hell horrors and hardships and why God allows suffering in this life. Through a panoramic overview of what the Bible says about suffering the authors make clear who God is why he permits so much heartache and pain and how it is we can trust him. With both a practical edge and heartfelt warmth When God Weeps offers dependence on his love and mercy in spite of our doubts fears longings and questions. It's a message much needed. Despair and discouragement are rampant. At the same time fewer people are able to balance God's purposes and his mercies. Instead attempting to avoid tragedy and suffering many Christians confuse simple formulas for faith. But where does that leave the family who loses a son on a military mission? Or the young mother who isn't healed of cancer? When God Weeps is for people like these and for thousands more who need more much more than answers. When God Weeps Joni Eareckson Tada, 2010-06-22 A must read for anyone who has ever asked God "Why me?" It's easy to trust God when things are going our way and the world makes sense. But when suffering strikes especially seemingly senseless suffering we are filled with doubt and stunned by events spiraling beyond our control. In the midst of suffering we often question the very foundation of our faith our belief in the God who says he loves us. Shirin Gol was just a young girl when her village was levelled by the Russians in 1979. When the men in her family joined the resistance she fled with the other women and children to Kabul and so began a life of day to day struggle in her war torn country A life that included a Pakistani refugee camp a forced marriage to pay off her brother s gambling debts selling her body and begging for money to feed her growing family an attempted suicide and an unsuccessful attempt to leave Afghanistan for Iran after the Taliban seized control of her country This is the story of the fate of many women in Afghanistan But it is also a story of a courageous and proud woman who refused to be banished to a life behind the walls of her house who wanted an education for her children so that they could have a chance to live their lives without fear and poverty
