Fedele, 2021-05-06 This richly illustrated volume presents the remarkable results of the Italian Archaeological Mission's investigations at the site of the walled town of Bar qish in interior Yemen ancient Yathill of the Sabaeans and Minaeans between 1986 and 2007 Zabid Project Pottery Manual 1995 Christopher Ciuk, Edward John Keall, 1996 This volume catalogues the ceramic finds of excavations undertaken in the Zabid area North Yemen from the early 1980s onwards During the 1995 campaign large quantities of mediaeval pottery were found for the first time in good contexts This new edition thus reflects pottery recording and analysis performed up to the end of the 1995 excavation season for material dating to before the first Ottoman occupation of Yemen in the 16th century The plates place similar vessels together so that the pottery may be studied for its intrinsic worth for what it says about consumer use and market forces rather than simply to establish a site chronology The excavation team s primary objective is to build up a picture of ceramic production technology and vessel function over time making it possible to track the development of the ceramic industry in the Tihamah and facilitate recognition of changing patterns of social behaviour Strings and Threads Wolfgang Heimpel, Gabriella Szabo, 2011-06-30 Anne Draffkorn Kilmer has had a long and fruitful career as an academic in Assyriology After receiving her doctorate in Philadelphia and serving as assistant to Benno Landsberger in Chicago she came to Berkeley in 1963 and stayed there for the long term despite offers from other universities During her career in addition to her many contributions to Assyriology and ancient musicology she served the university in various administrative functions In Assyriology her wide and varied interests included lexical texts mathematics animals entertainment and especially music Her discoveries were often unexpected and dramatic In this volume the essays presented in her honor focus on many of Prof Kilmer s primary interests The contributions are divided into two sections reflecting the title Strings and Threads The strings portion of the volume collects essays that follow her interest in musicology and related matters especially music archaeology It is well known that she studied ancient Hurrian Mesopotamian and Ugaritic texts containing musical notations and or songs and has been at the forefront of decipherment and explanation of these texts And a number of essays in this volume address various aspects of ancient music whether it be the lyrics of the songs or the pictorial representation of music making or the language in which music is described In the threads portion of the volume are collected essays on various aspects of Mesopotamian narrative literature an area to which Anne contributed significant insight on the structure of compositions and verbal wordplay used by ancient authors A number of the articles in the volume follow up on or parallel Prof Kilmer s work in this area Contributors include G Azarpay D Collon J Cooper R L Crocker D Foxvog E Hickmann A B Knapp E Leichty S L Macgregor S B Noegel D Pickworth E Robson J C Ross D Schmandt Besserat D Stronach and R L Zettler The volume concludes with a bibliography and an index of the works of A D Kilmer Landscapes of the Islamic World Stephen McPhillips, Paul D. Wordsworth, 2016-05-13 Islamic societies of the past have often been characterized as urban with rural and other extra urban landscapes cast in a lesser or supporting role in the studies of Islamic history and archaeology Yet throughout history the countryside was frequently an engine of economic activity the setting for agricultural and technological innovation and its inhabitants were frequently agents of social and political change The Islamic city is increasingly viewed in the context of long and complex processes of urban development Archaeological evidence calls for an equally nuanced reading of shifting cultural and religious practices in rural areas after the middle of the seventh century Landscapes of the Islamic World presents new work by twelve authors on the archaeology history and ethnography of the Islamic world in the Middle East the Arabian Peninsula and Central Asia The collection looks beyond the city to engage with the predominantly rural and pastoral character of premodern Islamic society Editors Stephen McPhillips and Paul D Wordsworth group the essays into four thematic sections harnessing and living with water agriculture pastoralism and rural subsistence commerce production and the rural economy and movement and memory in the rural landscape Each contribution addresses aspects of extra urban life in challenging new ways blending archaeological material culture textual sources and ethnography to construct holistic studies of landscapes Modern agrarian practices and population growth have accelerated the widespread destruction of vast tracts of ancient medieval and early modern landscapes highlighting the urgency of scholarship in this field This book makes an original and important contribution to a growing subject area and represents a step toward a more inclusive understanding of the historical landscapes of Islam Contributors Pernille Bangsgaard Karin Bartl Jennie N Bradbury Robin M Brown Alison L Gascoigne Ian W N Jones Phillip G Macumber Daniel Mahoney Stephen McPhillips Astrid Meier David C Thomas Bethany J Walker Alan Walmsley Tony J Wilkinson Paul D Wordsworth Lisa Yeomans
