The Chamdo Raid:

The Chamdo Raid John Miller, 1982      A History of Modern Tibet, Volume 4 Melvyn C. Goldstein, 2019-10-22 It is not possible to understand contemporary politics between China and the Dalai Lama without understanding what happened in the 1950s especially the events that occurred in 1957-59 The fourth volume of Melvyn C Goldstein's History of Modern Tibet series In the Eye of the Storm provides new perspectives on Sino-Tibetan history during the period leading to the Tibetan Uprising of 1959 The volume also reassesses issues that have been widely misunderstood as well as stereotypes and misrepresentations in the popular realm and in academic literature such as in Mao's policies on Tibet Volume 4 draws on important new Chinese government documents published and unpublished memoirs new biographies and a large corpus of in depth specially collected political interviews to reexamine the events that produced the March 10th uprising and the demise of Tibet's famous Buddhist civilization The result is a heavily documented analysis that presents a nuanced and balanced account of the principal players and their policies during the critical final two years of Sino-Tibetan relations under the Seventeen Point Agreement of 1951

All Them Cornfields and Ballet in the Evening John Miller, 2010 Miller offers a highly personal story about the vanishing world of the U S S R an extraordinary country that was the center of his working life as a foreign correspondent for more than 40 years

Forbidden Memory Tsering Woeser, 2020-04-01 When Red Guards arrived in Tibet in 1966 intent on creating a classless society they unleashed a decade of revolutionary violence political rallies and factional warfare marked by the ransacking of temples the destruction of religious artifacts the burning of books and the public humiliation of Tibet's remaining lamas and scholars Within Tibet discussion of those events has long been banned and no visual records of this history were known to have survived In Forbidden Memory the leading Tibetan writer Tsering Woeser presents three hundred previously unseen photographs taken by her father then an officer in the People's Liberation Army that show for the first time the frenzy and violence of the Cultural Revolution in Tibet Found only after his death Woeser's annotations and reflections on the photographs edited and introduced by the Tibet historian Robert Barnett are based on scores of interviews she conducted privately in Tibet with survivors Her book explores the motives and thinking of those who participated in the extraordinary rituals of public degradation and destruction that took place carried out by Tibetans as much as Chinese on the former leaders of their culture Heartbreaking and revelatory Forbidden Memory offers a personal literary discussion of the nature of memory violence and responsibility while giving insight into the condition of a people whose violently truncated history they are still unable to discuss today Access the glossary

When the Iron Bird Flies Jianglin Li, 2022-01-18 An untold story that reshapes our understanding of Chinese and Tibetan history From 1956 to 1962 devastating military conflicts took place in China's southwestern and northwestern regions Official record at the time scarcely made mention of the campaign and in the years since only lukewarm acknowledgment of the violence has surfaced When the Iron Bird Flies by Jianglin Li breaks this decades long silence to reveal for the first time a comprehensive and explosive picture of the six years that would prove definitive in modern Tibetan and Chinese history The CCP referred to the campaign as suppressing the Tibetan rebellion It would lead to the 14th Dalai Lama s exile in India as well as the Tibetan diaspora in 1959 though the battles lasted three additional years after these events Featuring key figures in modern Chinese history the battles waged in this period covered a vast geographical region This book offers a portrait of chaos deception heroism and massive loss Beyond the significant death toll across the Tibetan regions the war also destroyed most Tibetan monasteries in a concerted effort to eradicate local religion and scholarship Despite being considered a military success to this day the operations in the agricultural regions remain unknown As large numbers of Tibetans have self immolated in recent years to protest Chinese occupation Li shows that the largest number of cases occurred in the sites most heavily affected by this hidden war She argues persuasively that the events described in this book will shed more light on our current moment and will help us understand the unrelenting struggle of the Tibetan people for their freedom The Day They Almost Bombed Moscow Christopher Dobson,John Miller,1986 An account of the operations of British and Allied forces in Russia from 1918 to 1920 In Exile from the Land of Snows John Avedon,2015-01-06 Tibet the roof of the world had been aloof and at peace for most of its 2 100 years But in 1932 the Thirteenth Dalai Lama in his final testament warned It may happen that here in the center of Tibet religion and government will be attacked both from without and from within By the time his successor was enthroned in 1950 the Chinese occupation had begun In this gripping account John F Avedon draws on his work and travels with the Fourteenth Dalai Lama to bring us the riveting story of Tibet and its temporal and spiritual leader Included is an extensive interview with the Dalai Lama who speaks about the conditions in Tibet the mind of a Buddha and the events of his life Rigorously researched passionately written the original edition of In Exile from the Land of Snows was instrumental in launching the modern Tibet movement when it was published in 1984 Now some three decades later Avedon s testimony is more wrenching and relevant than ever Translation of the Peking Gazette ,1890
