Living in the Future Susan Nakley, 2017-08-24 Nationalism like medieval romance literature recasts history as a mythologized and seamless image of reality Living in the Future analyzes how the anachronistic nationalist fantasies in Geoffrey Chaucer s Canterbury Tales create a false sense of England s historical continuity that in turn legitimized contemporary political ambitions This book spells out the legacy of the Tales that still resonates throughout English literature exploring the idea of England in the medieval literary imagination as well as critiquing more recent centuries conceptions of Chaucer s nationalism Chaucer uses two extant national ideals sovereignty and domesticity to introduce the concept of an English nation into the contemporary popular imagination and reinvent an idealized England as a hallowed homeland For nationalist thinkers sovereignty governs communities with linguistic historical cultural and religious affinities Chaucerian sovereignty appears primarily in romantic and household contexts that function as microcosms of the nation reflecting a pseudo familial love between sovereign and subjects and relying on a sense of shared ownership and judgment This notion also has deep affinities with popular and political theories flourishing throughout Europe Chaucer's internationalism matched with his artistic use of the vernacular and skillful distortions of both time and space frames a discrete sovereign English nation within its diverse interconnected world As it opens up significant new points of resonance between postcolonial theories and medieval ideas of nationhood Living in the Future marks an important contribution to medieval literary studies It will be essential for scholars of Middle English literature literary history literary political and postcolonial theory and literary transnationalism The Living Church, 1910 The Living Age, 1896 Living Happily Ever After William Oldfield, 2023-04-27 Joseph Campbell's Monomythic Journey is an adventure into the realm of the mind to mitigate the discomfort of an adaptive challenge Psychological barriers must be overcome before creativity can flourish We'll explore the cage of Mythlock that blinds us to new possibilities We'll see how Scapegoatism hijacks the emotional harbingers of the creative process and vents them through anger upon any handy external entity We'll confront the Threshold Guardians of fear that bar the threshold crossing and if confidence is lacking a Magic Amulet can ease the passage Our first trial across the Garden's threshold is the Looking Glass Here we confront the unleashed emotions of guilt regret and anger Our emotions must be groomed because within the Garden of the Goddess the realm of the human mind negative emotions can breed monsters of the mind A negative response can transform the Goddess into a Hag A negative attitude towards our own sensuality can transform the Goddess of promise into a Seducer tempting us into sin and depravity The climax of the Adventure is an encounter with the Goddess in all her splendour Everything becomes clear and an answer is manifest in all its beauty and simplicity But the Goddess always promises more Beyond the Goddess lies the Stairway to the Stars This is Nirvana But the greatest challenge of all is yet to come The exciting and innovative ideas hatched within the realm of the mind are as nothing until they have passed through the Crucible of Reality The real test of our Monomythic Adventure comes with the Return when we take the Boon those powerful insights we discovered within the Garden and put them to actual use in the world of every day The Living Age, 1875 A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1891 Folk and Hero Tales D.
