The Glass Key:

The Glass Key Dashiell Hammett, 2011-02-09 From one of the great pioneers of detective stories a classic tale reissued with a new introduction by Laura Lippmann Ned Beaumont is a gambler and a professional troubleshooter for his friend Paul Madvig a cheerfully corrupt political power broker who aspires to greater things Madvig has his eyes set on none other than the daughter of Senator Ralph Bancroft Henry the heiress to a dynasty of political purebreds When the senator's son turns up dead Madvig becomes the prime suspect But if he is innocent then which of his dozens of enemies is doing an awfully good job of framing him Dashiell Hammett's tour de force of crime fiction combines a bulletproof plot authentically corrupt characters and writing of telegraphic crispness

Private Eyes Robert Allen Baker, Michael T. Nietzel, 1985 Private Eyes is the complete map to what Raymond Chandler called the mean streets the exciting world of the fictional private eye It is intended to entertain current PI fans and to make new ones

Out of the Shadows Gene D. Phillips, 2012 Out of the Shadows explores the most celebrated examples of film noir such as Laura The Maltese Falcon and Sunset Boulevard but also offers new insight into underrated films that deserve reconsideration including Spellbound A Double Life

Critical Essays on English and Bengali Detective Fiction Debayan Deb Barman, 2022-02-28 Critical Essays on English and Bengali Detective Fiction brings together three strains of detective fiction British American and Bengal The import of detective fiction from Britain has influenced generations of writers of Bengali detective fiction In this anthology of critical essays by scholars on detective fiction we have divided the contents into three groups First there are essays on classic British detective fiction with essays on Charles Dickens Wilkie Collins Arthur Conan Doyle Agatha Christie P D James Kate Atkinson and Margery Allingham The second section is on American hard boiled fiction with essays on Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler The third section is on Bengali detective fiction with essays on Hemendra Kumar Roy Saradindu Bandyopadhyay and Satyajit Ray Together these essays bring three strains of detective fiction into conversation to show the gradual postcolonial attempt of Bengali detective fiction to outgrow colonial influences and create an original and organic tradition of regional and vernacular detective fiction

Dashiell Hammett and the Movies William H. Mooney, 2014-11-03 As the father of the hardboiled detective genre Dashiell Hammett had a huge influence on Hollywood Yet it is easy to forget how adaptable Hammett's work was fitting into a variety of genres and inspiring generations of filmmakers Dashiell Hammett and the Movies offers the first comprehensive look at Hammett's broad oeuvre and how it was adapted into films from the 1930s all the way into the 1990s Film scholar William H Mooney reveals the wide range of films crafted from the same Hammett novels as when The Maltese Falcon was filmed first as a pre Code sexploitation movie then as a Bette Davis screwball comedy and finally as the Humphrey Bogart classic He also considers how Hammett rose to Hollywood fame not through the genre most associated with him but through a much fizzier concoction the witty murder mystery The Thin Man To demonstrate the hold Hammett still has over contemporary filmmakers the book culminates in an examination of the Coen brothers pastiche Miller

s Crossing Mooney not only provides us with an in depth analysis of Hammett adaptations he also chronicles how Hollywood enabled the author s own rise to stardom complete with a celebrity romance and a carefully crafted public persona Giving us a behind the scenes look at the complex power relationships cultural contexts and production concerns involved in bringing Hammett s work from the page to the screen Dashiell Hammett and the Movies offers a fresh take on a literary titan

Adaptation and the New Art Film William H. Mooney,2021-04-21 Since the 1990s the expropriation of canonical works of cinema has been a fundamental dimension of art film exploration Rainer Werner Fassbinder provides an early model of open adaptation of film classics followed ever more boldly by the Coen Brothers Chantal Akerman Alex Carax Todd Haynes Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck Baz Luhrmann and Olivier Assayas This book devotes chapters to each of these directors to examine how their films redeploy landmark precursors such as City Lights 1931 Citizen Kane 1941 Rome Open City 1945 All About Eve 1950 and Vertigo 1958 in order to probe our psychological philosophical and historical situations in a postmodern soci t du spectacle In broadly diverse ways each of these directors complicates received notions of the past and its representation while probing the transformative media evolution and dislocation of the present in film art and in society
