Chinese City and Regional Planning Systems Li Yu,2017-03-02

While the Chinese planning system is vitally important to the rapid development which has been taking place over the past three decades this is the first text to provide a comprehensive examination and critical evaluation of this system It sets the current system in historical context and explains the hierarchy of government departments responsible for planning and construction the different types of plans produced and recent urban planning innovations which have been put into practice Illustrated with boxed empirical case studies it shows the problems faced by the planning system in facing the uncertainty in the market economy In all it provides readers with a full understanding of a complex and powerful system which is very distinct from other planning systems around the world As such it is essential reading for all students interested in the current development taking place in China and in addition to planning students with a general interest in planning systems and theory NASA SP-7500 United States. National Aeronautics and Space Administration, ICT Policy, Research, and Innovation Svetlana Klessova, Sebastian Engell, Maarten Botterman, Jonathan Cave, 2020-11-02 A comprehensive discussion of the findings of the PICASSO initiative on ICT policy ICT Policy Research and Innovation Perspectives and Prospects for EU US Collaboration provides a clearly readable overview of selected information and communication technology ICT and policy topics Rather than deluge the reader with technical details the distinguished authors provide just enough technical background to make sense of the underlying policy discussions The book covers policy research and innovation topics on technologies as wide ranging as Internet of Things Cyber physical systems 5G Big data ICT Policy Research and Innovation compares and contrasts the policy approaches taken by the EU and the US in a variety of areas The potential for future cooperation is outlined as well Later chapters provide policy perspectives about some major issues affecting EU US development cooperation while the book closes with a discussion of how the development of these new technologies is changing our conceptions of fundamental aspects of society Management, a Bibliography for NASA Managers, 1992
