Ryan, 2016-02-15 The final book of the New Testament the Apocalypse has been controversial since its initial appearance during the first century A D For centuries after theologians exegetes scholars and preachers have grappled with the imagery and symbolism behind this fascinating and terrifying book Their thoughts and ideas regarding the apocalypse and its trials and tribulations were received within both elite and popular culture in the medieval and early modern eras Therefore one may rightly call the Apocalypse and its accompanying hopes and fears a foundational pillar of Western Civilization The interest in the Apocalypse and apocalyptic movements continues apace in modern scholarship and society alike This present volume A Companion to the Premodern Apocalypse collates essays from specialists in the study of premodern apocalyptic subjects It is designed to orient undergraduate and graduate students as well as more established scholars to the state of the field of premodern apocalyptic studies as well as to point them in future directions for their scholarship and or pedagogy Contributors are Roland Betancourt Robert Boenig Richard K Emmerson Ernst Hintz L szl Hubbes Hiram K mper Natalie Latteri Thomas Long Katherine Olson Kevin Poole Matthias Riedl Michael A Ryan The Trinity Apocalypse (Trinity College Cambridge, MS R.16.2), 2005 Thinking Medieval Romance Katherine C. Little, Nicola McDonald, 2018-10-17 Medieval romances with their magic fountains brave knights and beautiful maidens have come to stand for the Middle Ages more generally This close connection between the medieval and the romance has had consequences for popular conceptions of the Middle Ages an idealized fantasy of chivalry and hierarchy and also for our understanding of romances as always already archaic part of a half forgotten past And yet romances were one of the most influential and long lasting innovations of the medieval period To emphasize their novelty is to see the resources medieval people had for thinking about their contemporary concern and controversies whether social order Jewish Christian relations the Crusades the connectivity of the Mediterranean women s roles as mothers and how to write a national past This volume takes up the challenge to think romance investigating the various ways that romances imagine reflect and describe the challenges of the medieval world Devotional Interaction in Medieval England and its Afterlives, 2018-06-05 Devotional Interaction in Medieval England and its Afterlives examines the interaction between medieval English worshippers and the material objects of their devotion The volume also addresses the afterlives of objects and buildings in their temporal journeys from the Middle Ages to the present day Written by the participants of a National Endowment for the Humanities funded seminar held in York U K in 2014 the chapters incorporate site specific research with the insights of scholars of visual art literature music liturgy ritual and church history Interdisciplinarity is a central feature of this volume which celebrates interactivity as a working method between its authors as much as a subject of inquiry Contributors are Lisa Colton Elizabeth Dachowski Angie Estes Gregory Erickson Jennifer M Feltman Elisa A Foster Laura D Gelfand Louise Hampson Kerilyn Harkaway Krieger Kathleen E Kennedy Heather S Mitchell Buck Julia Perratore Steven Rozenski Carolyn Twomey and Laura J Whatley

Visualizing Medieval Performance Elina Gertsman,2017-07-05 Taking a fresh look at the interconnections between medieval images texts theater and practices of viewing reading and listening this explicitly interdisciplinary volume explores various manifestations of performance and meanings of performativity in the Middle Ages The contributors from their various perspectives as scholars of art history religion history literary studies theater studies music and dance combine their resources to reassess the complexity of expressions and definitions of medieval performance in a variety of different media Among the topics considered are interconnections between ritual and theater dynamics of performative readings of illuminated manuscripts buildings and sculptures linguistic performances of identity performative models of medieval spirituality social and political spectacles encoded in ceremonies junctures between spatial configurations of the medieval stage and mnemonic practices used for meditation performances of late medieval music that raise questions about the issues of historicity authenticity and historical correctness in performance and tensions inherent in the very notion of a medieval dance performance
