Impressionism John House, 2004-01-01 A new perspective on Impressionist art that offers revealing fresh interpretations of familiar paintings In this handsome book a leading authority on Impressionist painting offers a new view of this admired and immensely popular art form John House examines the style and technique subject matter and imagery exhibiting and marketing strategies and social political and ideological contexts of Impressionism in light of the perspectives that have been brought to it in the last twenty years When all of these diverse approaches are taken into account he argues Impressionism can be seen as a movement that challenged both artistic and political authority with its uncompromisingly modern subject matter and its determinedly secular worldview Moving from the late 1860s to the early 1880s House analyzes the paintings and career strategies of the leading Impressionist artists pointing out the ways in which they countered the dominant conventions of the contemporary art world and evolved their distinctive and immediately recognizable manner of painting Focusing closely on the technique composition and imagery of the paintings themselves and combining this fresh appraisal with recent historical studies of Impressionism House explores how pictorial style could generate social and political meanings and opens new ways of looking at this luminous art

The Aesthetics of Impressionism Sarah Frances Paulk,1981 Impressionism Museum Barberini Publications,2017-03-23 This magnificently illustrated book draws on the latest scholarly research to reveal new perspectives on the techniques and influences of Impressionist landscapes This breathtaking survey takes a multi faceted approach in its study of 90 seminal works of Impressionist art Accompanying the inaugural exhibition of the new Museum Barberini in Potsdam Germany the book features contributions by six leading scholars who examine a wide range of themes from the use of repetition and variation to the ecological climate in which the artists worked Underlying and unifying these perspectives is the inexorable change of the landscape itself Poised on the brink of the Modern Era the Impressionists documented the effects of industrialization on French landscapes Amid these transitions the artists used the landscape itself to advance their own explorations into the field of color theory The book also explores the influence of modern poetry and photography on the creation of these paintings With beautiful reproductions from the masters including Monet Pissarro Sisley and Renoir this volume takes an exciting new approach to the study of Impressionism while introducing audiences to the holdings of remarkable new museum Mapping Impressionist Painting in Transnational Contexts Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2021-05-03 This book offers microhistories related to the transnational circulations of impressionism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The contributors rethink the role of French impressionism in shaping these iterations by placing France within its global and imperialist context and arguing that impressionisms might be framed through the mobility studies concept of constellations of mobility Artists engaging with impressionism in France as in other global contexts relied on responded to appropriated and resisted elements of form and content based on fluid and interconnected political realities and market structures Written by scholars and curators the chapters demand reconsideration of impressionism as a historical construct and the meanings assigned to that term This project frames future discussion in art history cultural studies and global studies on the politics of appropriating impressionism
