Socialist States In The World System:

Global Inequalities in World-Systems Perspective Manuela Boatca, Andrea Komlosy, Hans-Heinrich Nolte, 2017-09-22 During its 500 year history the modern world system has seen several shifts in hegemony Yet since the decline of the U S in the 1970s no single core power has attained a hegemonic position in an increasingly polarized world As income inequalities have become more pronounced in core countries especially in the U S and the U K global inequalities emerged as a new topic of social scientific scholarship ignoring the constant move toward polarization that has been characteristic of the entire modern world system At the same time the rise of new states most notably the BRICS and the relative economic growth of particular regions especially East Asia have prompted speculations about the next hegemon that largely disregard both the longue dur e of hegemonic shifts and the constraints that regional differentiations place on the concentration of capital and geopolitical power in one location Authors in this book place the issue of rising inequalities at the center of their analyses They explore the concept and reality of semiperipheries in the 21st century world system the role of the state and of transnational migration in current patterns of global stratification types of catching up development and new spatial configurations of inequality in Europe s Eastern periphery as well as the prospects for the Global Left in the new systemic order The book links novel theoretical debates on the rise of global inequalities to methodologically innovative approaches to the urgent task of addressing them

At Penpoint Monica Popescu,2020-08-14 In At Penpoint Monica Popescu traces the development of African literature during the second half of the twentieth century to address the intertwined effects of the Cold War and decolonization on literary history Popescu draws on archival materials from the Soviet sponsored Afro Asian Writers Association and the CIA funded Congress for Cultural Freedom alongside considerations of canonical literary works by Ayi Kwei Armah Ng g wa Thiong o Ousmane Semb ne Pepetela Nadine Gordimer and others She outlines how the tensions between the United States and the Soviet Union played out in the aesthetic and political debates among African writers and intellectuals These writers decolonized aesthetic canons even as superpowers attempted to shape African cultural production in ways that would advance their ideological and geopolitical goals Placing African literature at the crossroads of postcolonial theory and studies of the Cold War Popescu provides a new reassessment of African literature aesthetics and knowledge production
