Teaching Islam:

The Philosophy of the Teachings of Islam Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, 1996 Originally written for the Conference of Great Religions held at Lahore on December 26 29 1896 the Philosophy of the Teachings of Islam has since served as an introduction to Islam for seekers after the truth and religious knowledge in different parts of the world The present issue includes several lost pages not included in the essay that was read out at Lahore It deals with the following five broad themes set by the moderators of the Conference 1 The physical moral and spiritual states of man 2 The state of man after death 3 The object of man s life and the means to its attainment 4 The operation of the practical ordinances of the Law in this life and the next 5 Sources of Divine knowledge Publisher s description Teaching about Islam and Muslims in the Public School Classroom Council on Islamic Education (U.S.), 1995 Helps teachers with the challenging task of teaching about Islam and Muslims This resource contains Information on beliefs and practices of Muslims including glossary of terms charts and graphics Includes Basic Beliefs Religious Obligations The Muslim Society Contemporary Issues Understanding Islam Imran Mogra, 2020-03-10 Misconceptions and misunderstandings about Islam and fear of causing offence can be barriers to being an effective teacher in a diverse school This book aims to give non Muslim teachers the confidence to engage meaningfully with important facets of Muslim pupils lives leading to a richer and more rewarding experience in the classroom Aspects of Islam explored include the foundations and obligations of faith ethical dimensions placed upon Muslims the importance of education in Muslim communities and contemporary issues faced by communities in the UK To deepen your understanding each chapter is enriched by case studies linked to the classroom expert voices that offer authenticity and reflective tasks that encourage you to consider key concepts in greater depth This is essential reading for new and experienced teachers in primary and secondary schools wishing to deepen their knowledge of Islam Teaching Islam Brannon M. Wheeler, 2002-12-19 Despite the importance of Islam in global affairs and the role of Islamic Studies in Religious Studies little attention has been given to the basic questions of how Islam should be taught This volume brings together a number of leading scholars of Islamic Studies with rich experience in teaching Islam in a diversity of undergraduate settings from large public universities to small private colleges Topics addressed include Islamic law the Quran Sufism women in Islam Islam in America and teaching about Islam through Arabic literature and the use of new information technology Along with providing practical information about structuring courses and assignments the contributors examine the place of Islamic Studies in the larger theoretical framework of Religious Studies and liberal arts curricula Islam Solomon A. Nigosian, 2004-01-29 This compact introduction to Islam describes the essential aspects of Islam as a living religion and social force The book is organized around seven topics the life of Muhammad Islamic political development and territorial expansion the important groupings of Islamic believers Sunni Shi ite and Sufi the Qur an the Holy Book of Islam Sunnah Hadith the record of the Prophet s actions and sayings and Shari ah the compilation of Islamic law the five Articles of Faith and the so called Five Pillars of Islam that govern faith and action and other binding religious observances and festivals The presentation of these seven aspects of Islam strikes a balance between fact tradition current interpretation and commentary S A Nigosian underscores two fundamental points that to understand Islam properly it is necessary to see it as a major faith tradition with Muhammad as the last of a series of messengers sent by God and that to grasp the spirit of Islam one must recognize its emphasis on an uncompromising monotheism with strict adherence to certain social political and religious practices as taught by the Prophet and elaborated by tradition Teaching Islamic Studies in the Age of ISIS, Islamophobia, and the Internet Courtney M.
