Which Way Freedom:

Which Way Freedom Joyce Hansen, 2013-02-01 Obi had never forgotten the sounds of his mother's screams on the day he was sold away from her. Making plans to run away to find her was a secret game he played with friend Buka, an old African who lived at the edge of the farm. When the Civil War began, Obi knew it was time to run or be sold again. If he was caught, he'd be killed or worse. But if he stayed, he might never know freedom. Which Way Freedom? by Joyce Hansen : a Novel Study about Slavery and the Civil War Hansen, Joyce, Louis Sachar, Shannon Shepherd, Teacher TimeSavers (Firm), 2004

Which Way Freedom? Group Set Booksources, The, 2009-08-01 Verbal Riddim Christian Habekost, 2022-06-08 This is the first book-length study of dub poetry, the musical talkover that has been an important part of the reggae scene in Canada, Britain, and of course the Caribbean since the 1970s. Christian Habekost's qualifications for writing such a book are beyond dispute. He is a German poet who has been involved with the dub movement since it began and knows most of its leading figures. As Ranting Chako, he is featured on the LP Dread Poets Society. The bibliography indicates that he has interviewed many of the 43 poet-performers mentioned often on several occasions. Verbal Riddim, based on his doctoral dissertation at the University of Mannheim, is a successful blend of the performer and the researcher. Tending to the Past Karen Michele Chandler, 2024-01-18 In many popular depictions of Black resistance to slavery, stereotypes around victimization and the heroic efforts of a small number of individuals abound. These ideas ignore the powers of ordinary families and obscure the systematic working of racism. Tending to the Past: Selfhood and Culture in Children's Narratives about Slavery and Freedom examines Black-authored historical novels and films for children that counter this distortion and depict creative means by which ordinary African Americans survived slavery and racism in early America. Tending to the Past argues that this important, understudied historical writing freedom narratives calls on young readers to be active critical thinkers about the past and its legacies within the present. The book examines how narratives by children's book authors such as Joyce Hansen, Julius Lester, Marilyn Nelson, and Patricia McKissack, and the filmmakers Charles Burnett and Zeinabu Irene Davis were influenced by Black cultural imperatives such as the Black Arts Movement to foster an engaged, culturally aware public. Through careful analysis of this rich body of work, Tending to the Past thus contributes to ongoing efforts to construct a history of Black children's literature and film attuned to its range, specificity, and depths. Tending to the Past provides illuminating interpretations that will help scholars and educators see the significance of the freedom narratives reconstructions in a neoliberal era, a time of shrinking opportunities for many African Americans. It offers models for understanding the powers and continuing relevance of the Black child's creative agency and the Black cultural practices that have fostered it. The Concept of Freedom in Anthropology David Bidney, 2020-05-18 No detailed description available for The Concept of Freedom in Anthropology Congressional Record United States.
