Berghuis, Arthur E. Jongsma, Jr., 2004-07-22 The Family Therapy Progress Notes Planner contains complete prewritten session and patient presentation descriptions for each behavioral problem in The Family Therapy Treatment Planner The prewritten progress notes can be easily and quickly adapted to fit a particular client need or treatment situation Saves you hours of time consuming paperwork yet offers the freedom to develop customized progress notes Organized around 38 main presenting problems that range from family business conflicts and inheritance disputes to alcohol abuse physical verbal psychological abuse and religious spiritual conflicts Features over 1 000 prewritten progress notes summarizing patient presentation themes of session and treatment delivered Provides an array of treatment approaches that correspond with the behavioral problems and DSM IV TR TM diagnostic categories in The Family Therapy Treatment Planner Offers sample progress notes that conform to the requirements of most third party payors and accrediting agencies including the JCAHO and the NCQA Family Abuse Sylvia I. Mignon, Calvin J. Larson, William Michael Holmes, 2002 Both conceptual and practical this book examines the relationship between family abuse and deviant behavior using an approach that integrates theory research findings and programmatic efforts Family Abuse Consequences Theories and Responses is unique in that it places family abuse within a theoretical context covering sociological psychological and biological theories Topic coverage is comprehensive and includes an assessment of the quality of current treatment and prevention efforts and also proposes various solutions to family abuse For social workers sociologists and students of these disciplines Abuse in the Family Alan R. Kemp, 1998 In this practical eye opening book author Alan Kemp uses an ecological approach to examine the widespread social problem of family maltreatment By examining the complex relationships that exist on a macro meso and micro level students will be better prepared to make a difference in a world confronted by this colossal and disheartening social problem and to answer the following questions Why does family maltreatment occur What do its victims experience How do they recover What can we do to help them How can we understand the perpetrators and How might we reduce or prevent family abuse Stress Reduction as a Function of Family Systems Therapy in Child Abusing Families Christopher Scott Baglio, 1993 Family Violence Richard J. Gelles, 1987 Since its publication in 1979 Family Violence has proved to be one of the most popular volumes for professional and text use in its area The second edition reflects new concerns of family violence studies and advances in Gelles own work It includes topics that have emerged since the first edition such as elder abuse and adolescent to parent violence as well as the discovery by Gelles and his colleagues of a drastic drop in the incidence of family violence over the last decade Family Violence Robert L. Hampton, 1993 What factors contribute to family violence and how can they be identified early so that future violence can be prevented Addressing these and related issues the papers in this volume are a testimony to the rapid expansion of research theory and practice in the family violence field Leading researchers and clinicians explore the roots of family violence including both physical and sexual abuse and examine assessment treatment and prevention Topics addressed include whether children or the elderly are at greater risk and the role of substance abuse in family violence
