Drumming Our Way Home Georgina Martin, 2024-10-15 What does it mean to be Secwepemc And how can an autobiographical journey to recover Secwepemc identity inform learning and teaching Drumming Our Way Home demonstrates how telling retelling and re-storying lived experiences not only passes on traditional ways but also opens up a world of culture based learning Georgina Martin was taken from her mother not long after birth in a tuberculosis hospital Her experience is representative of the intergenerational trauma inflicted by the Canadian state on Indigenous Peoples Here she tells her story and invites Elder Jean William and youth Colten Wycotte to reflect critically on their own family and community experiences Throughout she is guided by her hand drum reflecting on its use as a way to uphold community protocols and honour teachings Her journey provides a powerful example of reconnection to culture through healing affirmation and intergenerational learning Drumming Our Way Home is evidence of the value of storytelling as a tool for teaching learning and making meaning

Finding Our Way Home Nikki Simpson, 2018-06-13 Finding Our Way Home Women's Accounts of Being Sent to Boarding School shares the personal stories of sixteen women all of whom were sent away to board at an early age Their accounts delve into the depths of long suppressed emotions and feelings and the lifelong impact that the early separation from their families has had Much has been written about the impact of boarding school syndrome on male boarders but less about their female counterparts This book is the first to explore the experience from a purely female perspective and offers an intriguing insight into the world of boarding schools and the upbringing of girls born in the mid to late 20th century Finding Our Way Home is a book for everyone who ever attended boarding school as well as psychotherapists and counsellors working with boarding school survivors
