A Group Analytic Approach to Understanding Mass Violence Bennett Roth, 2018-10-04 A Group Analytic Approach to Understanding Mass Violence makes an analytic examination of the enactment of genocide by Nazi Germany during World War II to explore how mass and state sponsored violence can arise within societies and how the false beliefs that are used to justify such actions are propagated within society Bennett Roth makes use of Bion's concept of Hallucinosis to describe the formation of false group beliefs that lead to murderous violence Drawing on both group analysis and psychoanalysis Roth explores in relation to genocide how people form and identify with groups the role of family groups how conflict can arise and be managed how violence can arise and be justified by false beliefs how we can best understand these dysfunctional group dynamics to avoid such violence A Group Analytic Approach to Understanding Mass Violence will be of great interest to all psychoanalysts and group analysts seeking to understand the role of false beliefs in their patients and society more generally It will also be of interest to students and scholars of Holocaust studies programs or anyone seeking to understand the perpetration of genocide in the past and present

Bread of Life, Cup of Salvation John Francis Baldwin, 2003 Bread of Life Cup of Salvation is an invitation to a deeper appreciation for the celebration of the Mass and a greater conviction of its importance for our ordinary living out of Christian faith in daily life Taking into account the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the new edition of the General Instruction on the Roman Missal Fr John Baldwin S J centers his lucid commentary on the Mass around the most recent official documents and provides an up to date survey of the historical development of the Mass from the New Testament to the present Clear concise and accessible Bread of Life Cup of Salvation is an informative and powerful reflection on the meaning of the Eucharist for us today This book responds to questions such as What are the origins of the Mass How did the Mass develop into what we know today Why do we have several readings from Scripture at every Mass Why do we always read a passage from the Gospels last Why is the Eucharistic Prayer called the center and highpoint of the celebration of the Eucharist What difference does it make if communion is distributed from the tabernacle or consecrated at the Mass at which people are receiving Why do we have more than one Eucharistic Prayer Is it important that people are offered communion in both kinds the Body and the Blood of Christ Why did the Mass get its popular name from the dismissal missa Why was it important to recover the exchange of peace
