Victoria Mundi:

Victoria Mundi Charles Foster, 1968 The Smith , 1972 The Complete Poetry George Herbert, 2015-04-16 A wonderful edition of Herbert's poetry edited by his acclaimed biographer John Drury and including elegant new translations of his Latin verse by Victoria Moul. George Herbert wrote but never published some of the very greatest English poetry recording in an astonishing variety of forms his inner experiences of grief, recovery, hope, despair, anger, fulfilment and above all else love. This volume edited by John Drury collects Herbert's complete poetry including such classics of English devotional poetry as The Altar, Easter Wings and Love. It also includes the verse Herbert wrote in Latin newly translated into English by Victoria Moul. George Herbert was born in 1593 and died at the age of 39 in 1633 before the clouds of civil war gathered. He showed worldly ambition and seemed sure of high public office and a career at court but then for a time lost himself in a humble way devoting himself to the restoration of a church and then to his parish of Bemerton three miles from Salisbury. When in the year of his death his friend Nicholas Ferrar published Herbert's poems under the title The Temple his fame was quickly established. John Drury is Chaplain and Fellow of All Souls College Oxford. His books include The Burning Bush 1990, Painting the Word 1999 and most recently Music at Midnight the culmination of a lifetime's interest in Herbert. Victoria Moul is Lecturer in Latin Literature and Language at Kings College London. She is author of Jonson, Horace and the Classical Tradition 2010 and editor of Neo Latin Literature 2014.

Avec Le Concours D'un Grand Nombre de Collaborateurs Fernand Cabrol, 1929 Slavery, Migrations, and Transformations: Connecting Old and New Diasporas to the Homeland Toyin Sanchez, 2015-07-28 From the historical movements of enslaved Africans to the Americas to newer migrations of Africans to spaces like Belgium and France, experiences of blackness on a global stage reflect themes of negotiation, persecution, isolation, unification, remembrance and much more. Yet it is impossible to minimize the complex experiences that make up the African diaspora throughout the world as diasporic communities face a range of struggles specifically related to the politics of identity and connections to the continent of Africa itself. This book is thus a timely and much needed exploration of the intricate nature of culture and life in the African diaspora. It examines identities, collectivities and relationships with Africa and Africans. It helps fill a gap in the field by illuminating the complex experiences of blackness in a manner that motivates readers to grapple with the nuances diaspora studies and African issues.

on a global stage This book balances conceptualizations of diaspora by engaging with scholars exploring old African diasporas newer migrations and even regional movement within the continent of Africa itself More importantly the chronological breadth of the volume allows readers to explore historical matters alongside comparable contemporary issues as a way of assessing continuities and the ways in which communities continue to grapple with institutional racism political marginalization and negotiations between tradition and modernity on a global stage Furthermore the interdisciplinary nature of the book offers diverse approaches for robust engagement with African diaspora studies
