Virgin Fire:

Deforested America George Patrick Ahern, 1928      Virgin Saints and Martyrs Sabine Baring-Gould, 1900      Lumber World Review, 1922      Public Documents West Virginia, 1910      The Fire Ants Walter R. Tschinkel, 2013-03-11 Walter Tschinkel's passion for fire ants has been stoked by over thirty years of exploring the rhythm and drama of Solenopsis invicta's biology. Since South American fire ants arrived in Mobile, Alabama in the 1940s, they have spread to become one of the most reviled pests in the Sunbelt. In Fire Ants, Tschinkel provides not just an encyclopedic overview of S. invicta—how they found colonies, construct and defend their nests, forage and distribute food, struggle among themselves for primacy, and even relocate entire colonies—but a lively account of how research is done, how science establishes facts, and the pleasures and problems of a scientific career. Between chapters detailed enough for experts but readily accessible to any educated reader, interludes provide vivid verbal images of the world of fire ants and the people who study them. Early chapters describe the several failed and heavily politically influenced eradication campaigns, and later ones the remarkable spread of S. invicta's polygynous form in which nests harbor multiple queens and colonies reproduce by budding. The reader learns much about ants, the practice of science, and humans' role in the fire ant's North American success.

The Feast of the Virgins and Other Poems Hanford Lennox Gordon, 1891      Characteristics and Analysis of Non-Flammable Polymers T.R. Crompton, 2013-03-04 In recent years there has been an increasing demand for fire retardant versions of a range of plastics. Such applications are fire retardancy in vehicles, aircraft, manned space vehicles, marine, and industrial applications such as electronics, and a wide range of applications in the building industry including roofing and interior walls. Also in domestic applications such as furniture, clothes, bedding, upholstery, and electrical goods. Fire retardancy in polymers can be achieved by either of three ways. Firstly, there are forms of polymers such as polytetrafluoroethylene which are intrinsically fire retardant. The second type are rendered fire retardant by the inclusion of a suitable additive in the formulation. These include additives based on bromine, antimony, nitrogen, phosphorus, and silicon. An essential requirement for fire retardant polymers used in enclosed spaces is that they do not release any toxic products upon combustion. In this respect, antimony-containing additives are going out of favour due to the release of toxic antimony volatiles upon combustion. Thirdly, introduction of intumescence into polymers by the introduction of suitable compounds is being increasingly used as a means of imparting fire retardancy in polymers. There exists a plethora of methods used to assess fire retardancy in polymers. These are discussed and summarised in this book. The book will be of interest not only to working in industry but also to design engineers and producers in the polymer fabrication industries.

Howell proclaims, "We are not confronting the end of the world but the end of the Age of Pisces." Integrating two major disciplines of astrology and Jungian depth psychology, Howell's latest title reveals the fascinating connection between astrology and the evolution of the Collective Unconscious. C. G. Jung's theory that the unconscious mind is shared by all humans and contains archetypes and universal mental predispositions not grounded in physical experience Written in the form of thought provoking letters to her analyst friend Howell s natural wit and charm compliment the text Exploring the synchronicity between myth history religion and the evolution of humankind over the past five astrological ages spanning some 12 000 years she presents the current tasks and the potential traps humanity now faces Howell also provides her audience with a deeper understanding and method of healing the individual psyche She illustrates that an astrologer serves as a type of psychologist who analyzes the position of the stars and planets within an individual s astrological chart for the purpose of understanding his or her psychological makeup the personal challenges he or she may face and the possible solutions to overcoming those obstacles Bulletin United States.
