Visionary Landscapes:

Routledge Handbook of Urban Landscape Research Kate Bishop, Linda Corkery, 2022-12-27 Landscape architecture is one of the key professions dedicated to making cities hospitable and healthy places to live work and play while respecting and enhancing the natural environments and landscapes we inhabit This edited collection presents current writing about the pivotal roles that landscape architects play in addressing some of the most pressing problems facing the planet its environments and its populations through their research analysis and speculative practice The book has assembled current writings on recent research structured around five major themes governance power and partnership infrastructure systems and performance environment resilience and climate change people place and design and culture heritage and identity As a collection the chapters demonstrate the diversity of themes and topics that are expanding the scholarly body of knowledge for the discipline and its relevance to the practice of landscape architecture The contributors to this book are academic researchers and practitioners from the discipline of landscape architecture The chapters draw on their research teaching and experience as well as analysis of project examples Fifty two contributors from the United States United Kingdom Sweden Denmark the Netherlands Nigeria Malaysia Spain Colombia Australia New Zealand and Canada discuss a diverse range of contemporary themes in urban landscape architecture Collectively the contributors demonstrate the breadth of experience shared concerns and distinct issues that challenge urban landscape architecture and cities in the 21st century

Landscape and the Environment Jane Bingham, 2006 In every part of the world in every generation the landscape and environment have fascinated and inspired artists They have expressed their feelings through paintings or altered their surroundings by making gardens or sculptures Whatever forms their creations have taken artists have managed to capture their visions of the environment for us to share This book explains how art styles have developed through time and how artists techniques add to our understanding of their work The subject of war and conflict is captured in a wide range of media including photography painting sculpture posters textiles and film The information to help interpret works of art and understand the time in history in which they were created are included in this book

Ferocious Reality Eric Ames, 2012-10-17 Over the course of his career Werner Herzog known for such visionary masterpieces as Aguirre The Wrath of God 1972 and The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser 1974 has directed almost sixty films roughly half of which are documentaries And yet in a statement delivered during a public appearance in 1999 the filmmaker declared There are deeper strata of truth in cinema and there is such a thing as poetic ecstatic truth It is mysterious and elusive and can be reached only through fabrication and imagination and stylization Ferocious Reality is the first book to ask how this conviction so hostile to the traditional tenets of documentary can inform the work of one of the world's most provocative documentarians Herzog whose Cave of Forgotten Dreams was perhaps the most celebrated documentary of 2010 may be the most influential filmmaker missing from major studies and histories of documentary Examining such notable films as Lessons of Darkness 1992 and Grizzly Man 2005 Eric Ames shows how Herzog dismisses documentary as a mode of filmmaking in order to creatively intervene and participate in it In close contextualized analysis of more than twenty five films spanning Herzog s career Ames makes a case for exploring documentary films in terms of performance and explains what it means to do so Thus his book expands the field of cinema studies even as it offers an invaluable new perspective on a little studied but integral part of Werner Herzog s extraordinary oeuvre At Home in the World Donald Capps,2013-09-26 The emotional separation of boys from their mothers in early childhood enables them to connect with their fathers and their fathers world But this separation also produces a melancholic reaction of sadness and sense of loss Certain religious sensibilities develop out of this melancholic reaction including a sense of honor a sense of hope and a sense of humor Realizing that they cannot return to their original maternal environment men whether knowingly or not embark on a lifelong search for a sense of being at home in the world At Home in the World focuses on works of art as a means to explore the formation and continuing expression of men s melancholy selves and their religious sensibilities These explorations include such topics as male viewers mixed feelings toward the maternal figure physical settings that offer alternatives to the maternal environment and the maternal resonances of the world of nature By presenting images of the natural world as the locus of peace and contentment At Home in the World especially reflects of the religious sensibility of hope Landscape Architecture ,1999 Visionary Landscapes Kendall H. Brown,2017-10-31 Japanese gardens are found throughout the world today their unique forms now considered a universal art form This stunning Japanese gardening book examines the work of five leading landscape architects in North America who are exploring the extraordinary power of Japanese style garden design to create an immersive experience promoting personal and social well being Master garden designers Hoichi Kurisu Takeo Uesugi David Slawson Shin Abe and Marc Keane have each interpreted the style and meaning of the Japanese garden in unique ways in their innovative designs for private commercial and public spaces Several recent Japanese style gardens by each designer are featured in this book with detailed descriptions and sumptuous color photos Hoichi Kurisu transformative spaces for spiritual and physical equilibrium Takeo Uesugi bright flowing gardens that evoke joyful living David Slawson evocations of native place that fuse with the surrounding landscape Shin Abe dynamically balanced visual stories that produce meaning and comfort Marc Keane reflections on human connections with nature through the art of gardens Also included are essays on the designers and mini essays by them about gardens in Japan which have most inspired their work as well as commentaries by patrons and visitors to their North American gardens The book focuses on recently created gardens to suggest how the art form is currently evolving and to understand how Japanese garden design principles and practices are being adapted to suit the needs and ways of people living and working outside Japan today Festus Philip James Bailey,1874 Encyclopedia of Romanticism (Routledge Revivals) Laura Dabundo,2009-10-15 First Published in 1992 this encyclopedia is designed to survey the social cultural and intellectual climate of English Romanticism from approximately the 1780s and the French Revolution to the 1830s and the Reform Bill Focussing on the spirit of the age the book deals with the aesthetic scientific socioeconomic indeed the human environment in which the Romantics flourished The books considers poets playwrights and novelists critics editors and booksellers painters patrons and architects as well as ideas trends fads and conventions the familiar and the newly discovered The book will be of use for everyone from undergraduate English students through to thesis driven graduate students to teaching faculty and scholars
