It presents a variety of teaching, learning, and curriculum design approaches relating to food across primary, secondary, and vocational school education, undergraduate initial teacher education programs, and in-service professional development support contexts. Contributions from authors of a variety of backgrounds and countries offer insight into some of the diverse issues in food education internationally, lessons to be learned from successes and failures, including action points for the future. The book will be both scholarly and useful to teachers in primary and secondary schools.

The Practice of Evaluation Ryan P. Kilmer, James R. Cook, 2020-09-18. The Practice of Evaluation: Partnership Approaches for Community Change provides foundational content on evaluation concepts, approaches, and methods, with an emphasis on the use of evaluation and partnership approaches to effect change. Real examples in every chapter illustrate key ideas and concepts in action on topics such as organizational development, capacity building, program improvement, and advocacy. Editors Ryan P. Kilmer and James R. Cook, and the chapter authors, highlight pragmatic approaches to evaluation that balance the needs of stakeholders in an ethical way to provide useful, usable, and actionable guidance for program improvement. Included with this title is the password-protected Instructor Resource Site, formally known as SAGE Edge, which offers access to all text-specific resources, including a test bank and editable chapter-specific PowerPoint slides.

Resources in Education, 1999. An Introduction to the Study of Education David Matheson, 2014-01-14. What is education? This core textbook will help students in pursuit of this question by providing a comprehensive, gentle, and reflective introduction to the initial study of education. Updated in line with the latest policies, reforms, and issues within education, this third edition includes full exploration of the historical, sociological, philosophical, and psychological roots of education, a focus on all levels of education (pre-school, primary, secondary, post-16, and lifelong learning), the latest controversies and debates within education, new material on compulsory education, special educational needs, and post-16 developments, clear insights into the role and background of research within education.

Arts in Criminal Justice and Corrections Amanda Gardner, Laura Caulfield, 2024-11-18. Offering a lively international and interdisciplinary introduction to research on arts programmes in prisons, Arts in Criminal Justice and Corrections is the first volume to bring together leading figures from the USA, the UK, Australia, New Zealand, and Belgium to explore key methodological approaches and issues through the lens of the researchers themselves. Beginning with the original pioneers of research into the arts in corrections in the USA in the 1980s, this book highlights the role of researchers in evidencing impact and influencing policy. Contributors include those who were themselves once incarcerated and those who have transitioned from practitioner to criminologist. Chapters lay the groundwork for discussion on how an important avenue for rehabilitation and re-entry can be developed, providing a call to action for more research into a field which holds promise for building a more just, equitable, and inclusive society. This book is essential reading for criminologists engaged in prisons, corrections, and desistance research, as well as researchers and practitioners in the arts and rehabilitation.

Interactive Teaming Carol Chase Thomas, Vivian Ivonne Correa, Catherine Voelker Morsink, 2001 This book effectively describes an interactive teaming model that focuses on consultation and collaboration to improve the services offered to students with special needs The model incorporates essential elements of total quality efforts adult learning theories and recognizing the importance of sensitivity to cultural differences The authors clearly explain the underlying theories and legal requirements of such service delivery systems and offer practical examples to bridge theory and practice Readers are introduced to an overview of past and present programs the facilitating factors necessary to make a teaming model work and the implementation of interactive teaming in four contexts culturally linguistically diverse students infants preschoolers students with mild disabilities and students with severe disabilities For professionals in the field of education Risk, Crisis and Security Management Edward P. Borodzicz, 2005-07-11 This book has two aims First it shows how risk crisis and security may be linked in an organisational context Second it reviews the role of simulation and gaming in responding to these phenomena Issues of risk management are implicit in every debate about how social services such as health transport and public safety are to be managed and how corporate activity is to be regulated This book informs that debate by considering the relationships between risk and security Includes case studies such as the Kings Cross underground disaster September 11 Hong Kong race track fire and Arthur Anderson and the London ambulance computer failure Frontiers in Education 1997, 1997 Yearbook of Science and the Future, 1990 Reedy's Mirror, 1917 British Education Index, 2000 The Education Index, 1991 Resources in Education, 1997 Academy of Management Learning & Education, 2007 Light Lou Michel, 1995
