Vital Contradictions Characterization:

Vital Contradictions Michael Manheim, 2002 This close study of selected plays by four of the greatest early modern playwrights namely Ibsen Strindberg Chekhov and O'Neill examines how these plays challenge long standing traditions and assumptions of nineteenth century theatre and reassert serious drama's place in great literature The book studies the chief characters from some of the best known plays of each playwright recognizing that what gives them strength as artistic creations and makes them so memorable is the essential contradiction at the core of each figure Michael Manheim explores the complexity of such characters as Ibsen's Peer Gynt and Hedda Gabler Strindberg's Miss Julie Chekhov's Uncle Vanya and Dr Chebutykin and the members of O'Neill's Tyrone family

Student Companion to Eugene O'Neill Steven F. Bloom Ph.D., 2007-06-30 Eugene O'Neill is the only American dramatist ever to have received the Nobel Prize for Literature He wrote over 50 plays a number are virtually unknown by the general public several are considered classics of the American stage all of them demonstrate in one way or another how O'Neill challenged the conventional boundaries of the drama of his time and thereby paved the way for modern American theatre This volume will provide guides to eight of O'Neill's plays that are most often studied in schools and colleges The Hairy Ape Anna Christie The Emperor Jones Desire Under the Elms Ah Wilderness The Iceman Cometh Long Day's Journey Into Night and A Moon for the Misbegotten More than almost any other author in any fictional genre O'Neill's works are highly autobiographical The love hate relationships he had with the members of his own family resonate throughout his dramatic works The son of an alcoholic and a morphine addict he struggled with chemical dependency throughout his life but determined to be an artist or nothing he eventually gave up drinking and fulfilled his artistic ambitions transforming the traumatic experiences of his life into compelling drama O'Neill's drama provides insights into the complexities of human behavior and raises questions about the forces both external and internal that shape human lives

Action and Consequence in Ibsen, Chekhov and Strindberg Zander Brietzke, 2017-10-13 Henrik Ibsen Anton Chekhov and August Strindberg innovators of modern drama created characters whose reckless pursuits of irrational objectives blind them to better options Ibsen's protagonists in A Doll's House Hedda Gabler and The Master Builder try to bend the world to conform to their personal visions with disastrous results Chekhov's characters refuse to do anything instead dramatizing their lives as if they were actors in a play which they are Rehearsing the intractable squabbles between men and women in The Dance of Death and The Ghost Sonata Strindberg suggests that only in life beyond death can humanity transcend the brutality of existence Together the lives of these characters offer a study of the individual's struggle with modernity

An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: General studies Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich The Wooster Group and Its Traditions Johan Callens,2004 This is the first collection of critical essays to appear about the Wooster Group Since the 1970s this groundbreaking New York based performance company has led the way in crystallizing the conditions of contemporary stage practice at the intersection of several cultural and artistic traditions As demonstrated by the assembled critics each of them an authority in the field these traditions extend into the past as well as into the future through the Wooster Group s impact on the latest generation of performance artists The company s consequent institutionalization is posited and challenged in the essays constituting Part I of the collection Part II tackles the work in progress mapping its idiomatic stage vocabulary and providing case studies ranging from Frank Dell s The Temptation of St Antony to To You The Birdie Ph dre Part III presents productions by kindred artists such as Elevator Repair Service the Builders Association Cannon Company and Richard Maxwell Lavishly illustrated with photographs this collection should prove invaluable to anyone with an interest in the current theatrical scene and its place in the wider institutional artistic and historical contexts The Eugene O'Neill Review ,2001 Performing Aotearoa Marc Maufort,David O'Donnell (MA.),2007 This volume comprises a wide range of chapters focusing on key figures in the development of New Zealand theatre and drama such as among others Robert Lord Ken Duncum Gary Henderson Stephen Sinclair Hone Kouka Briar Grace Smith Jacob Rajan Lynda Chanwai Earle Nathaniel Lees and Victor Rodger Publisher description Staging New Britain Geoffrey V.
