Walking Through Time:

Walking Through Time Beth Gilhespy,2024 In Walking Through Time Beth Gilhespy shares her love affair with the geology of Ontario's Niagara Escarpment. To me every walk on the Niagara Escarpment is a walk through time starting 450 million years ago and continuing through the millennia to the still changing landscape of today. I have found profound delight in sharing my love of Escarpment geology with thousands of others on geology hikes I lead as a volunteer between 2003 and 2018. This book is a culmination of many years of exploration and encouragement from those geology hikers and from the volunteers with whom I connected and who remain my friends. Beth takes readers on a journey to explore the formation of the Niagara Escarpment and the interesting and ancient geological features found along the Bruce Trail in the Beaver Valley area. By providing maps, photos, and descriptive text for 8 geology hikes in the Beaver Valley, she encourages readers to head to the Escarpment for their own geological explorations. Author website: Walking Through Time Ruben Rios Cepero,2022-03-13 Our human experience in time can be like watching a movie trailer but never actually getting to see the movie or looking away momentarily and realizing the movie was fast forwarded to another scene. Every moment is perpetually flowing into and becoming the past, instantly enshrined as memory as soon as we experience it, never to be repeated. And though we have a temporary existence, we regularly muse about eternity as if we have a primordial memory embedded deep in our psyche. We somehow sense that we are not meant to be prisoners of time. This collection of poetry and art illustrates glimpses of our mysterious journey through time and into eternity. It speaks of the joy, the sorrow, the fear, and the faith we experience, and it inspires optimism, hope, and strength for our journey through time. A Walk Through Time Gary H. Fowler,2013-04-27 Sit back, relax, and lose yourself in the fascinating life adventures of a real human being, a person like you and me. As you do, you'll embark on a familiar, satisfying, and often exhilarating journey of love, joy, sorrow, achievement, and self-discovery. Gary H. Fowler is a Vietnam veteran. He has worked on most of the United States Navy's aircraft carriers and for years he worked in direct service to several presidents of the United States. At the time of this publication, he works as a scientific photographer. He is a loving and dedicated father, son, brother, and friend, and perhaps most importantly, he is a dedicated born-again Christian. Gary's beloved mother asked him to write a book detailing his life experiences. This is such a book. He writes not only about the above-mentioned events but many others as well. In all cases, he tells the truth of his life as he remembers it, even when some of it involves the good, the bad, and the ugly that may be more than his mother cared to know. A Walk Through Time is a book of life stories dating back to August 18, 1942, when he was born. Written in sixty-five memoirs at the request of a mother who loves her son and wants the world to know him better, it is a gift to Gary's mother and a gift to you as well. It will make you laugh and cry, and you will recognize yourself in its pages. It is proof that there are no ordinary people and that we each have unique and important stories to tell.
