What Animals Do:

The Science of Animal Welfare Marian Stamp Dawkins,2021 In many people s eyes the ability for animals to be able to behave naturally is essential for their welfare However animals do not necessarily want to do behaviour just because it is natural or is seen in wild animals Being chased by a predator is not necessarily good for welfare Natural behaviour is important because it gives us a baseline for what animals might want to do but it cannot define good welfare on its own It has to be validated in exactly the same way as other behavioural correlates of welfare as either contributing to health or being what the animals want to do
