Wilhelm Dilthey, Pioneer of the Human Studies Hans Peter Rickman, 1979-01-01 Pattern and Meaning in History (RLE Social Theory) H.P. Rickman, 2020-07-26 One may state Dilthey s significance in most general fashion by characterizing his work as the first thorough going and sophisticated confrontation of history with positivism and natural science Dilthey s sweep was universal he strove to reduce to order the multifarious realms of knowledge the conflicting traditions of cultural study that he had embraced Thus Dilthey laid out a program that no mortal and certainly no one whose mind had been formed in the third quarter of the nineteenth century could hope to bring to completion Yet despite its inconclusiveness Dilthey s work exerted enormous influence The distinction he had drawn between natural and cultural science became standard for historians and to a lesser extent for social scientists also After Dilthey historians no longer needed to apologize for the unscientific character of their discipline they understood why its methods could never be quite the same as those of natural science And the contemporary tradition of intellectual history grew naturally out of Dilthey s teaching H Stuart Hughes Poetic Imagination and Insanity Wilhelm Dilthey,2023-12-14 In 1886 in a speech to a group of military physicians the prominent German philosopher Wilhelm Dilthey 1833 1911 rejected the traditional connection between artistic genius and inspired insanity Here is an English translation of this speech together with an extensive commentary by Eric v d Luft

Bulhof, 2012-12-06 Philosophy originates in man's amazement over the richness and complexity of reality. It attempts to articulate in words and concepts what reality is. Starting from the recognition that this reality is experienced by all humans but experienced in many different ways, the philosopher tries to find reality's heart, its center, its hidden treasure, the tree in the middle connecting heaven and earth, the central point from which the stupendous intricacy of experience begins to make sense and from which order can become visible. To ask what is reality is indeed to recognize that we have entered a maze. The hermeneutic philosophy of Wilhelm Dilthey (1833-1911) is the fruit of his own wanderings in this maze. Like many intellectuals of his age, he had lost faith in the Christian religion in which he was raised. In his college years, he turned from theology to philosophy, in particular the history of philosophy and of human thought, in general wondering about the origin and value of the astounding variety of past belief systems. At the center of reality's maze, he found the insight that reality as faced by man is comparable to a literary text; it means something to us. Reality is not a mute object but an autonomous source of meaning; an act of self-disclosure. Knowledge of reality is therefore not the product of actions performed by an active subject upon a passive object but a communicative interaction between two subjects.

Descriptive Psychology and Historical Understanding W. Dilthey, 2012-12-06 Perhaps no philosopher has so fully explored the nature and conditions of historical understanding as Wilhelm Dilthey. His work, conceived overall as a Critique of Historical Reason and developed through his well-known theory of the human studies, provides concepts and methods still fruitful for those concerned with analyzing the human condition. Despite the increasing recognition of Dilthey's contributions, relatively few of his writings have as yet appeared in English translation. It is therefore both timely and useful to have available here two works drawn from different phases in the development of his philosophy. The Ideas Concerning a Descriptive and Analytic Psychology (1894), now translated into English for the first time, sets forth Dilthey's programmatic and methodological viewpoints through a descriptive psychology, while The Understanding of Other Persons and Their Expressions of Life (ca. 1910) is representative of his later hermeneutic approach to historical understanding. DESCRIPTIVE PSYCHOLOGY AND THE HUMAN STUDIES Dilthey presented the first mature statement of his theory of the human studies in volume one of his Einleitung in die Geisteswissenschaften (Introduction to the Human Studies), published in 1883. He argued there that for the proper study of man and history we must eschew the metaphysical speculation of the absolute idealists while at the same time avoiding the scientific reduction of positivism.
