Wimby Welcome Into My Backyard:

Wimby Michelle Provoost, 2000 2001 marks the beginning of the International Building Exhibition IBE Rotterdam Hoogvliet with the theme WiMBY Welcome into My Backyard One of the biggest obstacles for contemporary urban planning and the urban environment is the NiMBY phenomenon Not in My Backyard This represents the personal fear of the urbanite for the implications of collectivism for everything that is unusual or new It also refers to the fear and unwillingness of large institutions companies and governmental organizations to share their knowledge and coordinate their agendas in communal projects WiMBY Welcome into My Backyard is the motto for a new design and organizational culture in which complexity is deliberately confronted in order to discover and apply innovative and pioneering possibilities It also signifies the application of an urban ethic in which the changes that overcome the urban dweller are seen as potential sources of enrichment for the resident of the collective city The objective of IBE Rotterdam Hoogvliet set to continue through 2010 is to heighten the profile of Rotterdam s urban planning and architecture and make a decision contribution to the repositioning of Hoogvliet as a sustainable and attractive place to live and work WiMBY is first and foremost a voyage of discovery into the potential of all the New Towns satellite towns Trabantstadte Garden Cities Villes Nouvelles and other growth epicentres that were built in the twentieth century BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Wimby! Hoogvliet Michelle Provoost, 2007 Wimby! Michelle Provoost, Els Brinkman, Andrew May, 2000 Use Matters Kenny Cupers, 2013-10-15 From participatory architecture to interaction design the question of how design accommodates use is driving inquiry in many creative fields Expanding utility to embrace people s everyday experience brings new promises for the social role of design But this is nothing new As the essays assembled in this collection show interest in the elusive realm of the user was an essential part of architecture and design throughout the twentieth century Use Matters is the first to assemble this alternative history from the bathroom to the city from ergonomics to cybernetics and from Algeria to East Germany It argues that the user is not a universal but a historically constructed category of twentieth century modernity that continues to inform architectural practice and thinking in often unacknowledged ways Too Blessed to be Depressed, 2002 Publikatie verschenen t g v de uitreiking van de Rotterdam Maaskantprijs voor jonge architecten aan Wouter Vanstiphout Boekbespreking in De Architect oktober 2002 p 93 Cooperative Design, Visualization, and Engineering Yuhua Luo, 2011-08-30 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Cooperative Design Visualization and Engineering CDVE 2011 held in Hong Kong China in September 2011 The 33 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers address all aspects of distributed computing and were organized in topical sections on cooperative design cooperative applications cooperative engineering cooperative visualization and basic theory and technology Ground-up City Liane Lefavre, 2007 With Ground Up City author Liane Lefavre has developed a theoretical model for tackling playgrounds as an urban strategy

She starts with a historical overview of play and the ludic in art architecture and urban design focusing particularly on postwar playgrounds realized in Amsterdam as joint ventures between Aldo van Eyck Cornelis van Eesteren and Jakoba Mulder The architecture firm D ll Atelier voor Bouwkunst explored the possibility of applying the model in two urban redevelopment areas in Rotterdam Oude Westen in the inner city and Meeuwenplaat in Hoogvliet an outlying postwar district refining it into a practical design strategy The second part of the book provides a refreshing new look at play in a picture essay with reference images illustrating play as an urban phenomenon Ground Up Cityplaces the playground high on the agenda as an urban design challenge It also shows how specifying a generic academic model for a particular situation can lead to a practically applicable design resource

Happy Cor Wagenaar,2004 Twenty reporters architects town planners travelled Europe looking for icons of public happiness architecture and town planning to promote public happiness The public domain as a medium embody promises for a beter future that point towards ideal or idealized ways for people to live in a community The book focuses on Europe after 1945 and the results from the town planners historians and sociologists are presented in the form of a travel guide

Parasite Paradise Liesbeth Melis,2003 Parasites are flexible and temporary structures designed by artists or architects that feed off of existing infrastructure Parasite Paradise documents 23 projects that respond on their own terms to new and unforeseen demands Many of these parasites have settled in the government designated Vinex district of Leidsche Rijn near Utrecht turning a district almost exclusively concerned with dwelling into a more urban entity What do these small mobile architectural interventions mean for our strictly regulated society and for the planning of architecture and urbanism What sense or nonsense is there in mobile architecture from a historical perspective How much of it is art and how much is architecture Parasite Paradise encourages us to consider a new approach to planning one where not everything is fixed beforehand This makes it required reading for architects urban planners and artists whose concern is designing urban space With projects by Shigeru Ban Atelier van Lieshout Vito Acconci Alicia Framis Dominique Gonzalez Foerster Martial Galfione Kathrin B hm Stefan Saffer with Andreas Lang Attila Foundation Winter H rbelt and others

Radical Games Lara Schrijver,2009 Comparing a number of radical movements in architecture in the 1960 s this book traces a moment in the history of architecture when revolutionary ideals were paramount and dreams became drawings The ensuing disillusionment as well as a contemporary revival of this period are enclosed within their very premises This book explores three radical critiques of modernist architecture throughout the work of the Situationist International Venturi and Scott Brown and Archigram Situated on the cusp of a new time of postmodernity and global capitalism these critical reactions to their forebears demonstrate a perceptively critical understanding of modernism and a prescience towards contemporary conditions At the same time however their dreams were so entwined with the modern project that they have created an untenable position for the contemporary architecture debate Book jacket Arquitectura E Cidade Apos a Tabula Rasa, 2001 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 New Commitment, 2003 Finalist for 2012 Pulitzer Prize for Drama Winner of 2012 New York Drama Critics Circle Award for Best Play Winner of 2012 Lucille Lortel Award for Outstanding Play A deeply humorous unflinching portrait of grief and loss Sons of the Prophet depicts a Lebanese American family in rural Pennsylvania beset by an absurd string of tragedies At the play s center is Joseph Douaihy a once promising world class runner now sidelined by injury As Joseph confronts his deteriorating health he is also forced to face the death of his father an ailing Uncle and a desperate boss beset by her own tragedies Deftly keeping its various storylines in careful balance Karam s play confronts with abundant intelligence and great sympathy for human frailty the inevitability of loss and the equally inevitable comedy resulting from our attempts to cope with its consequences
