Understanding Ulster Antony Evelyn Alcock,1994 The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1914 The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1925 The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1922 The Nation and Athenæum ,1920 Give War a Chance P. J. O'Rourke,2007-12-01 The 1 New York Times bestseller from one of America s most hilarious and provocative writers a volatile brew of one liners and vitriol Time Renowned for his cranky conservative humor P J O Rourke runs hilariously amok in this book tackling the death of communism his frustration with sanctimonious liberals and Saddam Hussein in a series of classic dispatches from his coverage of the 1991 Gulf War On Kuwait City after the war he comments It looked like all the worst rock bands in the world had stayed there at the same time On Saddam Hussein O Rourke muses He s got chemical weapons filled with with chemicals Maybe he s got The Bomb And missiles that can reach Riyadh Tel Aviv Spokane Stock up on nonperishable foodstuffs Grab those Diet Coke cans you were supposed to take to the recycling center and fill them with home heating oil Bury the Hummel figurines in the yard We re all going to die Details at eleven And on the plague of celebrity culture he notes You can t shame or humiliate modern celebrities What used to be called shame and humiliation is now called publicity Mordant and utterly irreverent this is a modern classic from one of our great political satirists described by Christopher Buckley as being like S J Perelman on acid Mocking on the surface but serious beneath When it comes to scouting the world for world class absurdities O Rourke is the right man for the job Los Angeles Times Book Review The funniest writer in America The Wall Street Journal The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1914 The Christian Advocate ,1922 Northern Ireland and the Divided World John McGarry,2001-07-26 Written by a leading group of scholars in the field this unique volume examines post Agreement Northern Ireland It shatters the myth that Northern Ireland is a place apart its conflict the result of peculiarly local circumstances Northern Ireland is compared with other divided societies in four continents including the Aland Islands the Basque Country Canada Cyprus Corsica East Timor Israel Palestine Lebanon Puerto Rico South Africa South Tyrol and SriLanka The collection shows that comparative analysis is essential for understanding the dynamics of Northern Ireland s conflict and ethnic conflict in general It also shows the value of comparative analysis for conflict management The contributors offer a wealth of suggestions on how to consolidate or change the landmark Agreement that Northern Ireland s political parties reached in April 1998 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1924 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament The Great War in Irish Poetry Fran Brearton,2003 The Great War in Irish Poetry explores the impact of the First World War on the work of W B Yeats Robert Graves and Louis MacNeice in the period 1914 45 and on three contemporary Northern Irish poets Derek Mahon Seamus Heaney and Michael Longley Its concern is to place their work and memory of the Great War in the context of

Irish politics and culture in the twentieth century The historical background to Irish involvement in the Great War is explained as are the ways in which issues raised in 1912 20 still reverberate in the politics of remembrance in Northern Ireland particularly through such events as the Home Rule cause the loss of the Titanic the Battle of the Somme the Easter Rising While the Great War is perceived as central to English culture and its literature holds a privileged position in the English literary canon the centrality of the Great War to Irish writing has seldom been recognised This book shows first that despite complications in Irish domestic politics which led to the repression of memory of the Great War Irish poets have been drawn throughout the century to the events and images of 1914 18 This engagement is particularly true of those writing in the troubled Northern Ireland of the last thirty years The second main concern is the extent to which recognition of the importance of the Great War in Irish writing has itself become a casualty of competing versions of the literary canon

The Ulster Bulletin Ulster Association for Peace with Honour,1924 The Edinburgh Review ,1897 America ,1924 The Jesuit review of faith and culture Nov 13 2017 Frances Molloy Jennifer M. Jeffers,2025-09-30 Frances Molloy The Portrait of a Postwar Northern Irish Woman Writer is the story of Ann McGill Brady the woman who wrote herself into the history of the Irish novel as Frances Molloy It is also the story of a poor uneducated Catholic female in Northern Ireland in the 1960s she had few choices and they were the traditional ones marriage or work a dead end job For young Molloy marriage was out the question because she did not want to replicate her own mother s life Molloy believed that God did have a higher plan for her life and she believed that she would better serve the world as a nun than as a seamstress in a pajama factory Frances Molloy gives a voice to the poverty prejudice and violence the Catholic community endured in Northern Ireland under the Stormont Government in the post World War II era While identity is always at the forefront of society in Northern Ireland there is little record of the Catholic female bound by tradition and poverty in the North A group without a history is a group without an identity no one has yet written a history of the poor Northern Irish Catholic female in the latter half of the twentieth century Frances Molloy was a Catholic woman in a sectarian state and her story includes discrimination segregation and unjust incarceration in Northern Ireland in the latter half of the twentieth century

The People and Languages of Ulster Charles C. Russell,1910 United Irish League Bulletin of America United Irish League of America,1912 Explaining Change in Cultural History Niall Ó Ciosáin,2005 Change is the stock in trade of historians If we have no concept of change and no sense of the past as different from the present then consequently we cannot have an historical sense in the deepest meaning of the term However historians rarely discuss change per se in very explicit terms What constitutes change How do you know when change has happened How do you define or measure it Are there different kinds of change These are some of the issues explored in this book Ireland has been in a process of extremely rapid cultural change in recent decades whether in the precipitate decline in the influence of the Catholic Church or in the rapid adoption of globalised market culture Reflecting on the general nature of such change is a prerequisite for understanding Ireland s

place in a new cultural economy This collection is based on papers presented to the 25th biennial Irish Conference of Historians held at the National University of Ireland Galway May 2001 Studies in Irish History and Biography Caesar Litton Falkiner,1902 Understanding the Ulster Covenant ,1912 the purpose of this publication is to examine this crucially important event in Ulster history It does so by examining three aspects of the Covenant s history Firstly it explores the origins and background to the Ulster Covenant Secondly utilising the text of the Covenant it explains why Ulster unionists opposed Home Rule in the years before the Great War Finally it briefly describes the events of Ulster Day 28 September 1912 p 28 back cover
