

VIRTUE VS VICE

VIRTUE

Good habits in the concrete.

Virtue enables you to know the good, do the good, and pursue the good in everything you think, say, and do. Doing the good and right thing one time is not a virtue, but rather a good deed. Virtue then, is a habitual disposition to do the good and right thing (God's will) every time, without exception. Virtues are good habits in the concrete.

An old Rwandan Proverb says, "You can outdistance that which is running after you, but not what is running inside you." Meaning, you can't hide from the truth of who your habitual acts are shaping you to be—a soul being formed by virtue, or a soul being formed by vice.

VICE

Bad habits in
the concrete.

Vices then, are bad habits in the concrete. Avoiding the good, or doing what's contrary to God's will one time is a bad deed; avoiding the good or doing what's contrary to God's will consistently is a bad habit and, therefore, a vice. To seek the will of self is the way of vice. Vice pulls you away from God's purpose for your life (emptiness).
