The Living Church ,1947 Toward a Common Future William G. Rusch,2019-05-20 This book provides a specific proposal for churches divided by centuries long disputes and disagreements to move toward a vision of the unity of the church It seeks to offer a way for divided churches to move beyond the present quagmire that challenges much of the modern ecumenical movement Building upon the theological dialogues between the churches this volume identifies and supplies a way for churches to regain a momentum that seems recently to have been lost in the ecumenical movement

The Spiritual Kingdom James Beverlin Ramsey,1873 Receptive Ecumenism and the Renewal of the Ecumenical Movement Antonia Pizzey,2019-05-15 Receptive Ecumenism is a ground breaking new ecumenical approach widely regarded as having the potential to revitalise the Ecumenical Movement But what is Receptive Ecumenism Why is it important In Receptive Ecumenism and the Renewal of the Ecumenical Movement Antonia Pizzey offers a comprehensive systematic analysis of Receptive Ecumenism While still emerging Receptive Ecumenism is highly promising because it prioritises the need for ecclesial conversion Pizzey explores the scope and complexity of Receptive Ecumenism providing much needed clarity on its aim key developmental influences and distinctiveness as well as its virtuous character and relationship with Spiritual Ecumenism The major implementations of Receptive Ecumenism to date are investigated along with its significance for the future of ecumenism especially regarding its engagement with contemporary challenges

Agreeable Agreement Minna Hietamäki,2010-02-18 In recent bilateral ecumenical dialogue the aim of the dialogue has been to reach some form of doctrinal consensus The three major chapters of the book discuss the variety of forms of doctrinal consensus found in ecumenical dialogues among Anglicans Lutherans and Roman Catholics In general the dialogue documents argue for agreement consensus based on commonality or compatibility Each of the three dialogue processes has specific characteristics and formulates its argument in a unique way The Lutheran Roman Catholic dialogue has a particular interest in hermeneutical questions and proposes various forms of differentiated or perspectival forms of consensus The Anglican Roman Catholic dialogue emphasises the correctness of interpretations The documents consciously look towards a common future not the separated past The Month ,1899 The Church Quarterly Review ,1898 Brownson's quarterly review ,1875 The Papacy: Revisiting the Debate Between Catholics and Orthodox Erick

Ybarra,2022-11-22 The Lord Jesus Christ intended his kingdom present on earth the Church of God to be one holy catholic and apostolic Prior to the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century history tells of the most egregious division in the Church between the Latin West and Byzantine East in AD 1054 and following How can it be that Catholics and Orthodox share a thousand years of ecclesial life together in one faith sacramental order and hierarchical government only to have that bond of communion broken Historians and theologians throughout the years have spilled much ink in recounting the causes and effects of this dreadful and heart wrenching division and among the many debates that exist between Catholics and

Orthodox none are as vital to the task of reconciliation as the subject of the papacy In The Papacy Revisiting the Debate between Catholics and Orthodox Erick Ybarra examines sources from the first millennium with a fresh look at how methodology and hermeneutics plays a role in the reading of the same texts In addition he conducts a detailed investigation into the most significant points of history in order to show what was clearly accepted by both East and West in their years of ecclesiastical unity In light of this clear evidence the reader of The Papacy is free to decide whether contemporary Catholicism or Eastern Orthodoxy has maintained the heritage of the first millennium on the understanding of the Papal office
