thought in Egypt from ancient to modern periods When a civilization disappears its heritage does not vanish It survives in different potentially hybrid forms and becomes part of the legacy of humanity Religion and the Invisible World is a broad survey of the development and transformation of interrelated forms of invisibility sanctity and religious beliefs and rituals in Egypt Drawing on forty years of research as an anthropologist historian and Egyptologist el Sayed el Aswad shows how concepts of sacredness and invisibility have been core elements in the spiritual transformations in Egypt as embodied in the early pharaonic religion Egyptian Hellenistic religion Christianity and Islam and how these practices of spirituality and cosmology cut across many divides of ethnicity gender region religion language and social class He draws on available prior ethnographies and descriptions pointing to the invisible world in Egyptian villages and urban settings including dreams rituals trance bodily practices and what a century ago were called survivals By focusing on concepts of invisibility and sanctity this book provides a holistic understanding of the similarities and differences between religious beliefs and rituals that have existed in different historical epochs in Egypt from the Old Middle and New Kingdoms to the contemporary world a span of five thousand years
