William And The Wolf:

William and the Wolf NeekoTrue,2023-01-06 William Lanceton was a journalist aspiring to be a full time writer So when he drifted into a new town and learned there was a terror house on Maple Tree Avenue how could he not want to be the first to get the scoop on the elusive owner within But after being caught by an enormous black dog or was it a wolf and forced into the very house he d been investigating William soon worried he d gotten in over his head The man behind the mystery did nothing to ease his concerns particularly when it felt like a bolt of lightning every time their eyes met stirring up emotions he had no idea how to handle And what was this craziness about him STAYING in the house to get his interview Anthony Radcliffe had long since given up on ever finding his mate They say the Moon Goddess chooses a soulmate for every werewolf at the moment of their birth but he wasn t a normal werewolf and it seemed she hadn t given him a mate At least that s what he had thought Until William waltzed no broke in to his life and shone like the sun into the dark corners of his world But it was too late for this wolf He was a shadow of his former self A ghost moving through life until his inevitable end That s what he d grown accustomed to and that s what he wanted and no man smelling of sunshine would change that Particularly a drifter who never planned to stick around anyway So why did he just put him up in a room and demand that he stay
